Protests of Vaccine Mandates

What does The New York Times and a majority of other legacy media have in common with Big Pharma? Answer: They're largely owned by BlackRock and the Vanguard Group, the two largest asset management firms in the world. Moreover, it turns out these two companies form a secret monopoly that owns just about everything else you can think of too. As reported in the featured video:

"The stock of the world's largest corporations are owned by the same institutional investors. They all own each other. This means that 'competing' brands, like Coke and Pepsi aren't really competitors, at all, since their stock is owned by exactly the same investment companies, investment funds, insurance companies, banks and in some cases, governments.

"The smaller investors are owned by larger investors. Those are owned by even bigger investors. The visible top of this pyramid shows only two companies whose names we have often seen ...They are Vanguard and BlackRock.

"The power of these two companies is beyond your imagination. Not only do they own a large part of the stocks of nearly all big companies but also the stocks of the investors in those companies. This gives them a complete monopoly.

"A Bloomberg report states that both these companies in the year 2028, together will have investments in the amount of 20 trillion dollars. That means that they will own almost everything."

Who are the Vanguard?

The word "vanguard" means "the foremost position in an army or fleet advancing into battle," and/or "the leading position in a trend or movement." Both are fitting descriptions of this global behemoth, owned by globalists pushing for a Great Reset, the core of which is the transfer of wealth and ownership from the hands of the many into the hands of the very few.

Interestingly, Vanguard is the largest shareholder of BlackRock, as of March 2021. Vanguard itself, on the other hand, has a "unique" corporate structure that makes its ownership more difficult to discern. It's owned by its various funds, which in turn are owned by the shareholders. Aside from these shareholders, it has no outside investors and is not publicly traded. As reported in the featured video:

"The elite who own Vanguard apparently do not like being in the spotlight but of course they cannot hide from who is willing to dig. Reports from Oxfam and Bloomberg say that 1% of the world, together owns more money than the other 99%. Even worse, Oxfam says that 82% of all earned money in 2017 went to this 1%.

"In other words, these two investment companies, Vanguard and BlackRock hold a monopoly in all industries in the world and they, in turn, are owned by the richest families in the world, some of whom are royalty and who have been very rich since before the Industrial Revolution."

While it would take time to sift through all of Vanguard's funds to identify individual shareholders, and therefore owners of Vanguard, a quick look-see suggests Rothschild Investment Corp. and the Edmond De Rothschild Holding are two such stakeholders. Keep the name Rothschild in your mind as you read on, as it will feature again later.

The video above also identifies the Italian Orsini family, the American Bush family, the British Royal family, the du Pont family, the Morgans, Vanderbilts and Rockefellers, as Vanguard owners.

BlackRock/Vanguard own Big Pharma

According to Simply Wall Street, in February 2020, BlackRock and Vanguard were the two largest shareholders of GlaxoSmithKline, at 7% and 3.5% of shares respectively. At Pfizer, the ownership is reversed, with Vanguard being the top investor and BlackRock the second-largest stockholder.

Keep in mind that stock ownership ratios can change at any time, since companies buy and sell on a regular basis, so don't get hung up on percentages. The bottom line is that BlackRock and Vanguard, individually and combined, own enough shares at any given time that we can say they easily control both Big Pharma and the centralized legacy media — and then some

Why does this matter? It matters because drug companies are driving COVID-19 responses — all of which, so far, have endangered rather than optimized public health — and mainstream media have been willing accomplices in spreading their propaganda, a false official narrative that has, and still is, leading the public astray and fosters fear based on lies.

ORDER TODAY: Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.'s
New Book — 'The Real Anthony Fauci'

To have any chance of righting this situation, we must understand who the central players are, where the harmful dictates are coming from, and why these false narratives are being created in the first place.

As noted in Global Justice Now's December 2020 report "The Horrible History of Big Pharma," we simply cannot allow drug companies — "which have a long track record of prioritizing corporate profit over people's health" — to continue to dictate COVID-19 responses.

In it, they review the shameful history of the top seven drug companies in the world that are now developing and manufacturing drugs and gene-based "vaccines" against COVID-19, while mainstream media have helped suppress information about readily available older drugs that have been shown to have a high degree of efficacy against the infection.

BlackRock/Vanguard own the media

When it comes to The New York Times, as of May 2021, BlackRock is the second-largest stockholder at 7.43% of total shares, just after The Vanguard Group, which owns the largest portion (8.11%).

In addition to The New York Times, Vanguard and BlackRock are also the top two owners of Time Warner, Comcast, Disney and News Corp, four of the six media companies that control more than 90% of the U.S. media landscape.

Needless to say, if you have control of this many news outlets, you can control entire nations by way of carefully orchestrated and organized centralized propaganda disguised as journalism.

If your head is spinning already, you're not alone. It's difficult to describe circular and tightly interwoven relationships in a linear fashion. The world of corporate ownership is labyrinthine, where everyone seems to own everyone, to some degree.

However, the key take-home message is that two companies stand out head and neck above all others, and those are BlackRock and Vanguard. Together, they form a hidden monopoly on global asset holdings, and through their influence over our centralized media, they have the power to manipulate and control a great deal of the world's economy and events, and how the world views it all.

Considering BlackRock in 2018 announced that it has "social expectations" from the companies it invests in, its potential role as a central hub in the Great Reset and the "build back better" plan cannot be overlooked.

Add to this information showing it "undermines competition through owning shares in competing companies" and "blurs boundaries between private capital and government affairs by working closely with regulators," and one would be hard-pressed to not see how BlackRock/Vanguard and their globalist owners might be able to facilitate the Great Reset and the so-called "green" revolution, both of which are part of the same wealth-theft scheme.

BlackRock and Vanguard own the world

That assertion will become even clearer once you realize that this duo's influence is not limited to Big Pharma and the media. Importantly, BlackRock also works closely with central banks around the world, including the U.S. Federal Reserve, which is a private entity, not a federal one. It lends money to the central bank, acts as an adviser to it, and develops the central bank's software.

BlackRock/Vanguard also own shares of a long list of other companies, including Microsoft, Apple, Amazon, Facebook and Alphabet Inc. As illustrated in the graphic of BlackRock and Vanguard's ownership network below, featured in the 2017 article "These Three Firms Own Corporate America" in The Conversation, it would be near-impossible to list them all.

In all, BlackRock and Vanguard have ownership in some 1,600 American firms, which in 2015 had combined revenues of $9.1 trillion. When you add in the third-largest global owner, State Street, their combined ownership encompasses nearly 90% of all S&P 500 firms.

A global monopoly few know anything about

To tease out the overarching influence of BlackRock and Vanguard in the global marketplace, be sure to watch the 45-minute-long video featured at the top of this article. It provides a wide-view summary of the hidden monopoly network of Vanguard- and BlackRock-owned corporations, and their role in the Great Reset. A second much shorter video (above) offers an additional review of this information.

How can we tie BlackRock/Vanguard — and the globalist families that own them — to the Great Reset? Barring a public confession, we have to look at the relationships between these behemoth globalist-owned corporations and consider the influence they can wield through those relationships. As noted by Lew Rockwell:

"When Lynn Forester de Rothschild wants the United States to be a one-party country (like China) and doesn't want voter ID laws passed in the U.S., so that more election fraud can be perpetrated to achieve that end, what does she do?

"She holds a conference call with the world's top 100 CEOs and tells them to publicly decry as 'Jim Crow' Georgia's passing of an anti-corruption law and she orders her dutiful CEOs to boycott the State of Georgia, like we saw with Coca-Cola and Major League Baseball and even Hollywood star, Will Smith.

"In this conference call, we see shades of the Great Reset, Agenda 2030, the New World Order. The UN wants to make sure, as does [World Economic Forum founder and executive chairman Klaus] Schwab that in 2030, poverty, hunger, pollution and disease no longer plague the Earth.

"To achieve this, the UN wants taxes from Western countries to be split by the mega corporations of the elite to create a brand-new society. For this project, the UN says we need a world government — namely the UN, itself."

As I've reviewed in many previous articles, it seems quite clear that the COVID-19 pandemic was orchestrated to bring about this New World Order — the Great Reset — and the 45-minute video featured at the top of the article does a good job of explaining how this was done. And at the heart of it all, the "heart" toward which all global wealth streams flow, we find BlackRock and Vanguard.

Larry Fink of BlackRock is the one pushing corporations to "get woke".

The means Critical Race theory, discriminating against White males of European Christian heritage, 58 genders, etc.

Of course, that all filters down to the public (and private) schools. It affects the whole society. You know how it works: The golden rule -- the one with the gold makes the rules.

Then just throw in the Big Pharma factor. No treatment for Covid (which is cheap and easy, but where's the money in that?) Nope, it's all about vaccines. Which cause sickness. Which means more money for the medical-industrial complex.

Then there's the Great Reset. That means the billionaire class owns everything and we own nothing. They own the air, the water, the land, the food, etc. And they ration things out to us if we're good.

The end game? Cull the population. They think they don't need us. To them, we're useless eaters and polluters. We're to be replaced by robots, AI, Big Data, etc.

The three big problems they want to solve: Inequality -- solution, get rid of poor people. Climate Change -- solution, get rid of middle class people. Covid -- solution, "vaccines", which help to solve inequality and climate change.

I have to hand it to the media and our "education" system. They've created the Covid cult of unquestioning obedience. Medical tyranny is the new religion. You get baptized in the "waters" of Pfizer and Moderna. And you keep wearing that mask to show your faithfulness and piety.

We became aware of Black Rock and Vanguard in 2008 with the "Financial Crash." These two hedge funds should be considered "deadly predators." When 6-8 million citizens were forced out of their homes because of "The Crash" there was Black Rock & Vanguard (and others) who bought the vacant homes for pennies on the $$s. Not only do they control what the picture shows, they also hold ALL pension money, That's worth BILLIONS.

Something that I have long thought is that these globalist tyrants do not themselves produce anything: They exist only to take, and that is their one talent.

There are no no Mozarts, no Tolkiens, no da Vincis among them. And the Mozarts, Tolkiens, and da Vincis of the future will be aborted to feed their lusts.

Many white people get woke without being pushed. I think that white people started hating themselves. I have no idea what or who is behind it. So we've been told since 2016 that the Orange Man is a Racist, Liar, Russian collaborator, misogynistic, and the most dangerous man in the world. Now we have a Good Old Joe to save us. The Great Reset. Gates and the DAVOS crowd. None of this should be a surprise. Passports with Medical Records? Next Cashless society? Censorship by the Media. The old saying Follow the Money has been established by contributors to this site. Look some of us are Liberals that follow this site and RKJR; some are conservative. Obviously we are all suspicious of Big Pharm, big Corporate interests, Bill Gates, Fauci, Vaccine safety. But we all need to hold our elected officials accountable. As a rule we don't. Many are beholden to the Global Giants. This Country stands in their way. We have a great system of government if we the people are vigilant. God Bless Robert Kennedy Jr. and all who provide the support for this site.

The biggest lie is that we need money to survive. The earth gives us everything we need for free. We need to refuse to buy all the chemical-laden food and plastic disposable crap that we've been buying because it's convenient and work together to grow our own food and create what we need in a healthy and sustainable way. Think of Amish societies (without the religious aspect) but with electricity and modern tools. There's nothing we can't do if we work together. Land ownership and zoning laws seem to be a roadblock to this vision, but maybe we need to stop playing by the rules. Many of the rules are designed to keep us dependent on a monetary system that basically keeps us in debt slavery, while the banks keep collecting interest on what we "owe." Insurance companies keep taking our money too, and then when we need the insurance they barely pay anything. We've paid enough! Time to take back our power as creative human beings and create the world we want to live in through cooperation with each other and with the earth.

We agree with you, Hannah, but there's "a hitch." To live independently from predatory capitalism in the US, you have to have $$$ to buy land. Secondly, you have to drill into the ground to have water.

Based on what honest observers are writing and charting, more & more Americans are falling into poverty.

The latest figure is: the top wealthiest citizens have more money than the BOTTOM 90% of citizens.

Just wait until the federal govt. ends ALL stimulus money and allows landlords demand the millions to "pay up" for their past due $$ because they've lost their jobs from Covid. It's going to be a very traumatic time.

You don't need money or land if the people band together and take back what was stolen from 'us' in the first place. People like yourself have been indoctrinated into believing that the world needs money to function and survive, we don't. All we need is for people to respect life and the land and work together to provide what we 'all' need to live in a world of harmony. Capitalism and greed is what's holding back the human race from what's holding back the human race from advancing to a higher state of being and harmony with each other and our planet. The majority of the people on this planet are good, and if these people stand together as one we can make the world a better place. 'We' have the power!

The irony is that the very leftists/globalists who profess to want to return the Earth to Nature (and in the process, coincidentally disenfranchise, eliminate, or imprison the commoners) are the ones who are promulgating every kind of unnatural technology - and behavior - imaginable.

Vaccines - real or fake - are inherently unnatural, and compromising to the human immune system.

Antoine Bechamp was right; Louis Pasteur was wrong. However, Nature cannot be patented; artificial vaccines can be patented.

Follow the money. Follow the power.

Follow the control.

It's up 'us' the people to take responsibility for taking out this evil, not an imaginary

What defines good and evil? Can it come from man? If you believe it can, you are implying it is subjective. If it is subjective, explain how anyone's opinion can be held above anyone else's. Biblically, we are defined as being equal, equally sinful. In an evolutionary view, we are all Homo sapiens, correct, equally evolved.

Next time a COVID-lie promoting, "listener supported" radio

Oh sure, the lessons from the 50 years it took for independent

As in the times of Jesus. It is time to chase again the evil money changers from the Temple. I remember that a few years ago the CEO of Blackrock had a party to celebrate his anniversary and on the occasion spent 600 million dollars. It would not take very much to topple these monsters by the way. We need another Teddy Rossevelt to break up these monopolies. Breaking up big financial institutions in a thousand pieces would indeed generate economic activity and reestablish an economy based on real free markets and not crony capitalist FASCISM like Blackrock and Vanguard practice. These two institutions are a threat to humanity since their parasitism is being used to force us into a globalist evil medical tyranny where even YOUR OWN BODY will belong to them. These corporations have indeed blood on their hands and as such should be tried like the Nazi Connected Corporations were in Nurenburg and LIQUIDATED like AG Farbecn was. Martin Bormann was a Marxist, you know, sending coded radio transmissions to Moscow from the Party Chancellery in Berlin...

During the course of World War II Admiral Wilhelm Canaris, Chief of the Abwehr (German military intelligence), and General Reinhard Gehlen, Chief of the German General Staff's intelligence unit for the Soviet Union and East European countries, Foreign Armies East (FHO), independently discovered that a group supervised by Deputy Führer Martin Bormann, 6 second in command of Germany, was transmitting unsupervised coded radio messages to Moscow:

And...we do what? Something? Nothing? Is just understanding who runs the world enough?

First things first...complete the election audits and 'reset' the 2020 election.

Second round up and charge everyone involved with the election corruption. Jail time at least.

Third, get rid of the U.S. Federal Reserve. There is no financial reason the United States needs to go through a third party for its money. Transparency is key.

Fourth, break up all monopolies (financial, tech, etc.)

Fifth, purge the bureaucracies in D.C. Eliminate anything States are already doing for themselves.

Sixth, rescind FCC licenses of all media corporations in the US and reissue based on revised policies and extreme punishment for breaking said policies. Honesty and balance are of utmost importance.

Seventh, hold people accountable for what they say, even and especially politicians both in campaigns and as well as elected office.
