WWIII Alert: US Army Publishes Retiree Recall or ALACRAT for "Utilization of the Army Retiree Recall Program"

By Brian Lupo Mar. 21, 2024 7:00 pm

While the Ukraine conflict rages on and rumors run rampant about France potentially deploying up to 2,000 troops to Ukraine, according to Russian intelligence, the US Army yesterday issued a "Utilization of the Army Retiree Recall Program."

On March 20th, the US Army Publishing Directorate published ALACRAT 017/2024. The title of the form is "Utilization of the Army Retiree Recall Program" and it cites Executive Order 13223 under "References". Executive Order 13223 is a Bush-era EO from September 14, 2001 titled "Ordering the Ready Reserve of the Armed Forces to Active Duty and Delegating Certain Authorities to the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of Transportation."

The 18-page PDF for the ALARACT, which stands for "All Army Activities", contains a slide titled "Directorate of Military Personnel Management." Under the first slide, it states:

"What is a Retiree Recall? -A recalled retiree is a retired Soldier who is ordered to active duty from the Retired Reserve or the retired list under 10 USC 688/688a, 12301(a), or 12301(d) and serves in his or her retired status. Retiree Recall is not an extension of your MRD.

Who can approve a Retiree Recall? -The Assistant Secretary of the Army (ASA) of Manpower and Reserve Affairs (M&RA) is the authorized approver to recall retired Soldiers."

The ALARACT does reference "peacetime operations":

It appears the last time a Retiree Recall was instituted was in May, 2020 when volunteers among 800,000 Individual Ready Reserve and retired Soldiers were sought to help with the COVID pandemic response. According to the 2020 publication, "retiree recalls" were also conducted during Desert Storm, on 9/11, and during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

In July 2023, The Gateway Pundit reported a Presidential Action issued by Joe Biden authorizing, if necessary, the activation of 3,000 Reservists and Resolve.

DIRECTORATE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT*What is Retiree Recall?

A recalled retiree is a retired Soldier who is ordered to active duty from the Retired Reserve or the retired list under 10 USC 688/688a, 12301(a), or 12301(d) and serves in his or her retired status. Retiree Recall is not an extension of your MRD.

Who can approve a Retiree Recall?

The Assistant Secretary of the Army (ASA) of Manpower & Reserve Affairs (M&RA) is the authorized approver to recall retired Soldiers.

Who is eligible for Retiree Recall?

Personnel of all grades are eligible for retiree recall to Active Duty (AD). There is no age limitation, although personnel older than 70 not normally recalled. Recalled retiree Soldiers must be aligned to a valid AC vacancy with an exact grade and skill level match ("one up-two down" does not apply). The retiree population will be utilized as a last resort to fill AC requirements.

I'm currently drawing retirement and disability pay.*Can I continue to receive those?

You may only receive one form of compensation while on AD. Usually, that will mean AD Pay and Allowances. Your retirement pay will be suspended. You must notify the Veterans Administration of your active service and make a pay election (i.e., suspend your disability payments). Failure to do so will result in collection actions for overpayment.

Slide 2 of 9

DIRECTORATE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT*How long is a recall?

Retired Soldiers voluntarily ordered to AD, in support of peacetime operations, will normally remain on AD from 1 to 2 years. Retired aviation officers are generally recalled for a minimum of two years and a maximum of three years.

Can I be promoted?

No. Retirees are not eligible for promotion. (AR 600-10, Chapt 2). Retired Soldiers will be ordered to AD in their current grade on the retired list unless otherwise directed by HQDA. Members of Retired Reserve must be ordered to AD in their reserve grade.

Can I be released early?

Yes. Retirees may be released for poor performance, lack of operational requirements, personal hardship, or other reason deemed appropriate.

Can my security clearance be reinstated?

Everyone is required to pass a National Agency Check with Local Agency Checks (NACLIC) and Credit Check (also known as Tier 3) to be able to attain a Secret Clearance. Generally, those with less than two years into retirement are easier to process. You must, of course be eligible to hold the level of clearance that the job requires.

I am still on Active Duty. What do I need to start?

Soldiers serving on AD who are immediately recalled (day after contractual obligation ends) must go through the actual retirement process and initiate DD2656 (Data for Payment of Retired Personnel) to allow DFAS to build a retired account. HRC will require either your retirement order or your DD214.

How do I find a position eligible for recall?

Currently, the only mechanism is for Commanders, ACOMs, Army Service Component Commands, Direct Reporting Units, and Army component commanders to request retiree support by one of two means: through a requirement-based request or a by-name request. There is no database or system to post and/or search for retiree recall positions.

What are the minimum requirements?

You must meet the medical fitness standards IAW AR 40-501, para. 8-17, which states "A current (within the past 12 months) periodic health assessment, separation health assessment, or retirement medical examination is required." A civilian medical assessment may be substituted or you may be sent to a Mobilization Force Generation Installation (MFGI) who will validate your medical readiness before assignment. For mobilization, you must also meet standards for deployment to the theater of operations.

You must maintain personal fitness and stay within Army weight/body fat standards during period of active duty.

DIRECTORATE OF MILITARY PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

Where do I report?

Your report location for in processing will be located on your orders. Failure to report to the location specified will negatively impact your tour and may result in immediate revocation of the active duty order.

What are my entitlements?

Your pay and entitlements are the same as any other Soldier currently on active duty. CONUS and OCONUS tours follow the rules as outlined in the Joint Travel Regulation.

What else?

- Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act applies to all retired Soldiers ordered to AD.
- Protection under Uniformed Services Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) applies
- Recalled personnel do not receive additional entitlements to educational benefits, unless specifically provided for by Congressional action.
- Recalled personnel ordered to AD are automatically enrolled in SGLI (unless declined)
- Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) Law stipulates a Soldier typically may not change previous SBP election, however cost of coverage is suspended until Soldier is released from AD
- Once AD period is complete, retired pay will be recalculated based on:
  - 1) higher grade to which [if] appointed while on AD
  - 2) Disability incurred or aggravated
  - 3) Length of service on AD
- You must contact the VA upon completion of AD to reinstate your disability benefits

*for visualization only. Staffing times are approximate (except where noted). Please plan accordingly.

Dark winter could refer to WWII and a nuclear attack. Russia keeps warning the United States and Europe but they refuse to negotiate or listen. Push the bear against the wall and the bear will attack.

Biden and his incompetent administration have got to go. They are going to set the world on fire with their 24x7 warmongering, corruption and fake narratives.

Think of it this way. If you were a passenger on a plane and Biden was the pilot, what would you do?

Given the fact that I do not know how to fly a plane, I would still prefer to remove Biden from that pilot seat and let me fly the plane. At least I would have the common sense to put the plane on auto pilot and to contact the control tower for landing instructions. Biden, on the other hand, would sit in the pilot seat staring blankly into space completely disconnected from reality.
