If you think into American foreign policy since the end of WW2 - every conflict strangely seems to be to do with some old British Empire stomping ground - Afganistan, Iraq, Crimera, Syria etc ... On the opposite side of the fkg world requiring insane logistics.....

Whereas a real dominant American empire woulda rolled Canada into the Union and told the Brits and their "commonwealth" to FO....

Held onto Panama and made it something like Puerto Rico and then taken the entire Caribbean - again telling the Brits to FO.....

Once that was consolidated Mexico would have been surrounded and easily absorbed..... Then Veneuzela and Colombia next..... Chile and Argentina would soon join peacefully and the Union would have 100 states by now.

All Christian countries only Spanish and English to cope with..... Most latins would wave stars and stripes whilat being liberated from their impoverished corrupted socialist mess..... Whereas the Arabs literally have a fanatical fkg religion to destroy infidels or die trying.

1\2 of Lat Am speaks english and 90% of it loves the USA - why do you think they are swimming across the fkg Rio Grande ?

For 20% of the money wasted on "Company" wars on behalf of the crown and London bankers - Lat Am was a paradise under the Union by now.

The euros, brits, asians and m\e could all go fk itself with their fusty old badly built nonsense cities and traditions.
