Listen up, you wide-eyed sheep still gobbling the Epstein fairy tale like it's gospel—it's past time to torch the myth that this dead pedo puppet "funded" anything out of his own greasy pockets. No, Jeffrey Epstein wasn't some rogue billionaire sprinkling cash on UCSD's "telepathic autistic savant" study like fairy dust; he was the slimy conduit for the deep state's dirtiest ops, a frontman funneling black-budget slush through cutouts like Gratitude America Ltd. to labs chasing psychic savants via Deepak Chopra's woo-woo network. $25k to Ramachandran's brain-probing gig?

That's not philanthropy; that's honey-pot setup, pedo/drug trafficking grease, and God only knows what else for the blood-sucking satanic cabal pulling his strings—elite webs of finance, intel, media, and politics that enabled the island orgies, protected the flight logs, and scrubbed the servers.

Epstein didn't "provide" jack—he laundered it, routed it, played the bagman for the shadows. And guess what? The infrastructure didn't vanish with his "suicide." It's still humming, plug 'n play, ready for the next frontman. Who took over? The same cabal—Gates? Clinton cronies? Mossad cutouts? CIA black sites?

The machine didn't skip a beat: fresh honey pots in Silicon Valley, drug nets in the border shadows, psychic experiments tucked into DARPA grants or university labs funded by "philanthropists" with Epstein vibes. WTF is happening now? The "telepathic savant" study reeks of MKUltra 2.0—mind control, ESP weapons, or elite psychic edge? The files drip, the quiet screams cover-up, and the cabal keeps grinding souls while we chase ghosts.

The pipeline's wide open. Who's next in line? Follow the "donations" ...that's where the blood flows.
