

The images, pictures, videos, speeches, soundbites and the cinematography broadcast by U.S. corporate media are all purposefully intended to create a very specific outlook within the American people toward the issues in Ukraine. The leftist United Nations, and the leftist U.S State Dept, will work together on this just like they have done in the prior examples (Ukraine 1.0, Libya, Egypt, etc.).

It is very easy to become a victim of psychological warfare intended to manipulate our opinions.

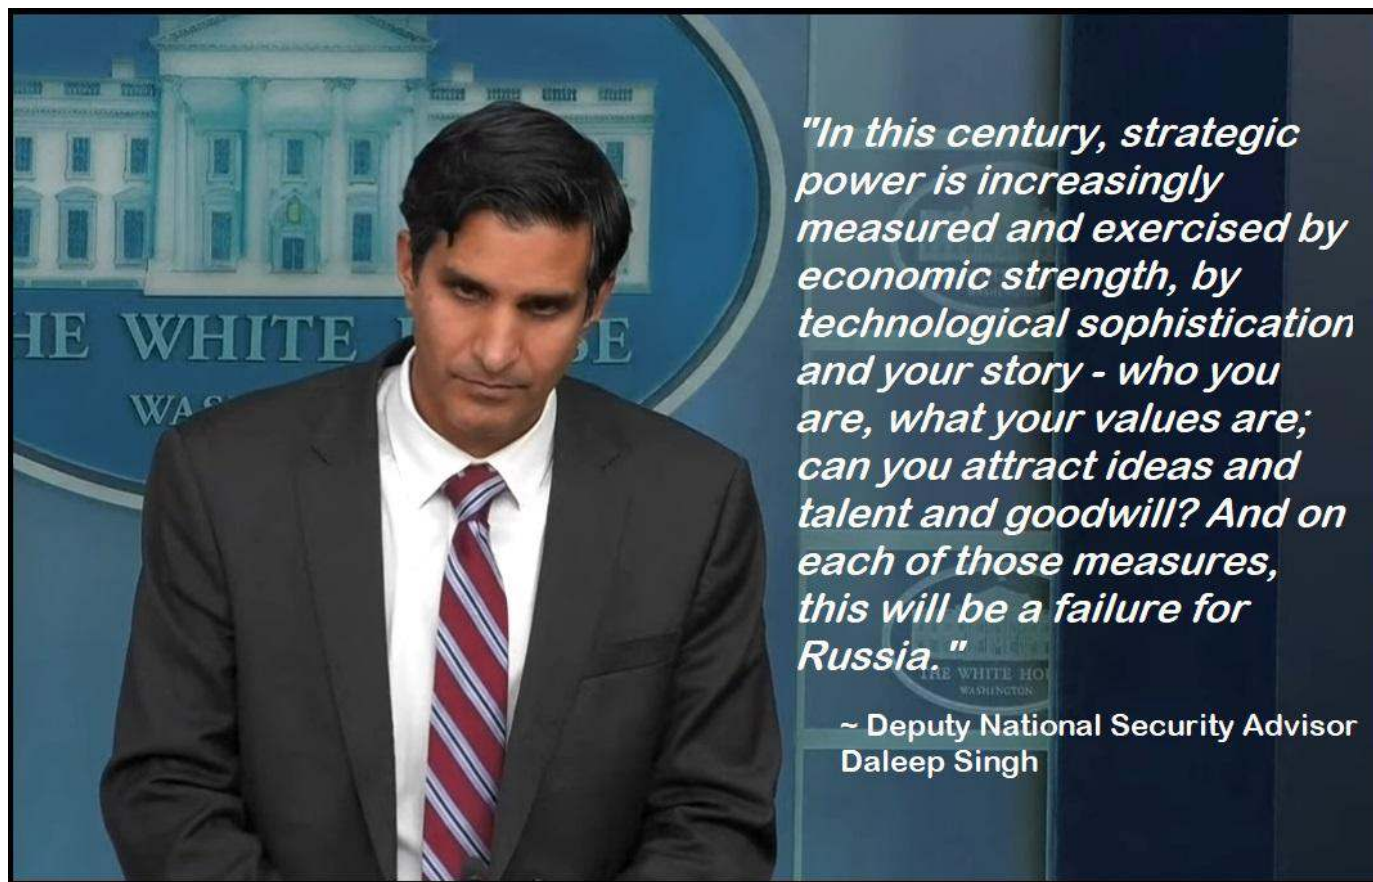

The neocons, war promoting agents working on behalf of the UniParty and the collective globalist interests, are all united in their effort.

Unfortunately, almost everything being transmitted from corporate news into our psyche is part of a battle for your mind. The goal is to create a self-fulfilling prophecy.

This is why people who are familiar with these types of tactics often tap-out when the drumbeats get loudest.

{SEE HERE}

The White House, which means the total globalist effort, tipped their hand earlier last week when they defined “strategic power” and their outlook toward winning the battle for the mind. Everything is about writing a script, creating a narrative, building a “better story,” where the globalists are the heroes. In essence, the “strategic power” battle is for your mind...

..."Ultimately, the goal of our sanctions is to make this a strategic failure for Russia; and let's define a little bit of what that means. Strategic success in the 21st century is not about a physical land grab of territory; that's what Putin has done.

In this century, strategic power is increasingly measured and exercised by economic strength, by technological sophistication and your story – who you are, what your values are; can you attract ideas and talent and goodwill? And on each of those measures, this will be a failure for Russia."

Everything in modern warfare is storytelling.

Question all of it.

The stories of the 13 guards on an island telling the Russian naval ship to fuck off... yeah, it was a lie (turns out they surrendered). The "Ghost of Kyiv" pilot, the lady with the sunflower seeds etc., now all recognized as lies and propaganda. And do not expect it to stop, because it won't. Thus, the nature of warfare for your mind.

Having listened to CPAC the majority of the day, one would think one would have been spared the propaganda of the Swamp Creatures.

But alas, no.

The CPAC speakers – Mark Levin & wife come to mind – were just as insistent on spreading the NeoCon side of the war for your mind. Be forewarned.

We're at a point where both the parties are just extensions of the supra-national corporations that are driving the decline of the American working class.

In 2022, the only organization even talking about peace and prosperity is the Communist Party – and it's a party conservatives should look into supporting, honestly. Might sound crazy, but they lie to us about Communists the same way they lie about war and everything else. Why? Because they know we're natural allies, so they'll do everything they can to keep us from actually learning about them.

To cover for 13 months of disasters would be more like it. However, I believe that's the cherry on top I haven't put My finger on it but this is clearly about something much bigger than a CIA sigh op campaign. The main stream Propaganda machine is pushing us into war for something much greater than a good optics.

It's difficult not to get carried away with stories of despair and tragedy and to take sides, especially the side of an underdog but let's be real here...

IF this all is not another giant false flag, this is my take:

Were the situation reversed and it was Mexico or Canada getting in bed with China or Russia and talking about bringing Canada or Mexico into some anti-American coalition with talks about building a nuclear arsenal close to OUR borders, would we just shrug our shoulders and let it slide? I'm not a Putin fan but he is a strong leader who will fight to the death for his homeland, as every leader should be. It's not a bad thing.

What our govt has done provoking all of this (again, if this is real) is the epitome of a war crime definition.

I will say this again.. The world is a stage.

As Sundance says, question EVERYTHING.

I believe it's quite possible that all of this is just more political theater and fear porn.

wanted to add this also:

The current figure of deaths with Covid is 865,000.

If early treatments could have conservatively saved 40% of Covid related deaths, and late treatments killed roughly 20% of those in that category, another conservative estimate, AND we know roughly ~73% of those that died had one or more co-morbidities then we end up with ~93,420 deaths in the U.S. from Covid. ~

We'll never know because the CDC used to estimate flu deaths in ranges of between 25,000 and 75,000 a year on their front page. There was no exact number, this was three years ago. When you go to the CDC website now everything is changed and I didn't even try to figure out what they were saying. I sure wish I'd taken a screen shot of their front page 3 years ago where they were honest about what they actually knew about flu deaths.

I was driving in the truck today, and the only station that wasn't broadcasting quack health cures made from cuttlefish cartilage ... was my local CBS radio News station. O ... M ... G ... the propaganda was thick and heavy. And here's what I've learned from the legacy media about the Russian invasion of Ukraine ...

- 1 – The people of Russia are turning against Putin. Putin's war is deeply unpopular in Russia.
- 2 – Putin is being taught a severe military lesson by the brave Ukrainians as his military assault isn't going as easy as he expected.
- 3 – Putin's military will be meeting the mother of all guerrilla wars as the brave, brave, people of Ukraine will never surrender
- 4 – Zylinski is the Sgt. York of Ukraine ... so brave. Such a brave, brave, fighter
- 5 – The US should DESTROY Russia financially by cutting off the SWIFT Bank from Russia. The only counterbalance to that ABSURD statement is that NATO isn't so keen about that. Never once mentioning how that would result in all gas and oil being shut off to Europe, and would drive Russia into the ChiComs arms and ¥¥¥¥?

6 – Jackie Speir of the Armed Services Committee says Pres. Bidinh is doing a fantastic job ... handling Russia (sic).

7. – Putin is acting like a man who's gone completely insane. Literally ... Putin must be having a mental break.

8. – Everyone is hoping one of Putin's troops will kill him

i have heard ALL of these propaganda points repeated by multiple legacy media outlets all day long. Over and over ... these same points. No evidence or proof of any of it. No debate. No opposing views.

Earlier in this thread, other posters tried to draw a comparison between the lies fed the public in this war and the lies fed the public during the Kosovo war. I think it's worth talking more about this because our response to that earlier lying is a large part of the reason we are where we are today. We should never have allowed the Republican Party (the UNIPARTY, it turns out) to just "move on" from those lies. Because the truth is Kosovo was a wag the dog war instigated SOLELY to take the Cox Report and Chinagate (i.e., Clintons' treason) off the front page. Clinton should have been impeached for that. Had he been, there'd have been no Obama. No more Clintons. No Biden. It's the leadership of the Republican Party's fault that that didn't happen.

Just like in this war, the stated reasons for the Kosovo invasion were completely bogus ... fabricated. History has proven this. Clinton and his spokespersons claimed the Yugoslav Government rejected all attempts to negotiate an agreement on the future of Kosovo. He told America the Rambouillet Accords had been offered to the Yugoslavs and rejected, leaving NATO no option but to start aerial bombardment. That was an outright lie.

Clinton then tried to force a treaty down the throat of the Milosevic that no leader in the world would have signed. NOT A ONE. And having given the Serbs no choice but to reject the treaty, Clinton and Clark then rained death on them. Albright, who was Albanian, assured Clinton that Milosevic would surrender after a few nights of bombing. But it didn't turn out that way, did it?

As bad as that lie was, to further justify this travesty in the American public's eye, the Clinton administration started a genocide meme. Nothing short of a lie. Prior to hostilities, US Defense Secretary William Cohen came out and claimed “we’ve now seen about 100,000 military-aged men missing . . . they may have been murdered”. David Scheffer, the US ambassador-at-large for war crimes, announced that as many as “225,000 ethnic Albanian men aged between 14 and 59” may have been killed.” And this meme was pushed over and over by the friendly liberal media.

But what did they find after the war? First, NATO reported that 2000 people had been killed in Kosovo on all sides in the year prior to the bombing. ALL SIDES. In a Senate Committee briefing, the Clinton administration itself stated that about 2000 people, including 700 Serbs, were killed in the year before the bombing. That hardly qualifies as one side committing genocide as was repeated over and over by the Clinton Administration and leftist press. There was no genocide. THEY OUTRIGHT LIED.

The Wall Street Journal published an article (<https://www.wsj.com/articles/SB946593838546941319>) titled “Despite Tales, the War in Kosovo Was Savage, but Wasn’t Genocide” with the results of its own investigation. They didn’t find “huge killing fields” but a “pattern is of scattered killings (mostly) in areas where the separatist Kosovo Liberation Army had been active”. There was no genocide. And the International War Crimes Tribunal (basically a NATO body) announced that the final count of bodies in Kosovo’s “mass graves” was 2,788. And this number included combatants on both sides plus Serbs and others (like Romas) murdered by the KLA. Again, there was no genocide.

Bill Clinton himself had justified the bombing of Yugoslavians by referring to a “massacre” where Serbian police allegedly lined up Albanians in a ditch and shot them. The alleged incident occurred at Racak on January 15th when the Serbian police forces were accompanied for the entire day by an Associated Press TV crew and two journalists, who saw no such massacre.

The television footage shows Serbian police entering an empty town that was controlled by the KLA, engaging in a fierce battle with the KLA, who were dug into hillside trenches and then withdrawing from the town in the afternoon. Remaining KLA members then returned to the town where no bodies were seen by them or the few citizens that were there. The bodies appeared with little blood or cartridges the next day in trenches.

The “massacre” was announced by Clinton administration official William Walker, whose account was denounced by French news sources, Le Figaro and Le Monde, based on the evidence they reported. Belarus and Finnish forensic experts who came to Yugoslavia could not verify the claims of massacre. Thus, America entered a preemptive war against Yugoslavians to stop a genocide from occurring based on nothing more than false reports about a staged event.

The truth is the Clinton administration deliberately lied because they needed a pretext to start a war the dog conflict to take treason off the front page of America’s papers. What’s happening in the Ukraine War reminds of this. Americans who believe the current lies should be just as ashamed as those who believed the Kosovo lies.

There wasn’t even ethnic cleansing going on during the Kosovo War. I find it interesting how Democrats chose to ignore the fact that at the start of WWII, Kosovo was over 60% Serbian. During the war, Albania fought with the Axis powers and with Nazi help “ethnically cleansed” Kosovo of Serbs, killing 140,000. Then, in the years after that, it was the Albanians in Kosovo who had been doing the terrorizing and ethnic cleansing. Didn’t those who supported Clinton’s war ever wonder how Albanians became 90% of the populace?

The answer is simple and documented ... by illegal immigration and by terrorizing the legal serb citizens who lived there until they were forced to flee. And the Albanians continued the same ethnic cleansing AFTER the war ... only this time with NATO’s help. And all of this is equally provable.

And just like this war is going to be pointed to by the UNIPARTY and NATO as a great victory, Kosovo was pointed to by democrATS and NATO as a great victory. Years later, Democrats were very careful not to criticize the Kosovo War since Hillary appears to have been the person who convinced a reluctant Bill to bomb Kosovo. She proudly told Talk magazine that “I urged him to bomb, I supported him.” She said she told him “you can’t let this ethnic cleansing go on at the end of the century that has seen the Holocaust.” And all the administration’s analysts expected a cakewalk.

But it wasn't. It lasted 78 days instead of a few days. And from the beginning, the war went badly. General Mike Short, commander of the allied forces, said "The Serbs dictated the pace of events, they dictated the battle rhythm." In the three months of NATO's air assault, NATO dropped more explosives on Yugoslavia than on either Japan or Germany during any comparable period in World War II ... and destroyed (according to post war analysis) just 13 of the 300 tanks that were in Kosovo (even though a month into the war NATO had claimed it destroyed hundreds).

At one point the JCS and DoD claimed they destroyed 120 tanks, 220 APCs and 450 artillery pieces during a certain time period, yet a Newsweek article a year after the war found that only 14 tanks, 18 APCs and 20 artillery pieces were destroyed, which is pretty close to the estimate that the Serbs themselves gave during that time period. Overall during the war, just 93 tanks were hit (out of about 600) and only 26 of those were totally destroyed. Most of the bombs actually fell on decoys.

In fact, Serb military targets were so difficult to find that on some days half the bombs were disposed of in "dump sites", known to be empty, for unused ordinance. NATO claimed the Serb army's morale was crumbling, but when the Serbs finally withdrew after months IN GOOD ORDER from underground bunkers in Kosovo, the media witnessed convoys of tanks, armored cars, artillery and anti-aircraft pieces, etc ... all untouched by NATO bombing. Even NATO was shocked.

As to losses by NATO, let's start with the $100 million F-117 Stealth fighter the Serbs brought down. Beyond that, NATO claimed minimal losses while the Serbs claim significant NATO losses. Moscow reported that NATO lost over 400 soldiers and over 60 aircraft. Sure, Serbia and Moscow had motive to inflate numbers, but NATO is proven to have lied about other things so perhaps they lied about their losses too. Who knows the real story?

What we do know is that NATO kept its aircraft at high altitude probably because of the threat environment. What we do know is that the Army spent a half billion dollars sending several dozen Apache attack helicopters to Albania and then never used them out of fear they'd be lost. This was supposed to be the most lethal and least vulnerable helicopter in the world and yet we feared losing them? Something caused this concern.

In any case, the war was going so badly that NATO finally realized that to oust Serbia from Kosovo they either had to invade (and probably lose thousands or tens of thousands of soldiers) or commit enough war crimes (bombing civilians) to demoralize Serbia. They chose the later and beat the drums again. They made repeated false claims about more atrocities committed by the Serbs. They continued the chants about genocide and ethnic cleansing, all the while knowing they were lies. All to get the complicit media and gullible public to accept what amounted to war crimes.

Listen to what Thomas Friedman said in a New York Times article on 4/23/99:

Let's at least have a real air war. The idea that people are still holding rock concerts in Belgrade, or going out for Sunday merry-go-round rides, while their fellow Serbs are "cleansing" Kosovo, is outrageous. It should be lights out in Belgrade: Every power grid, water pipe, bridge, road and war-related factory has to be targeted. Like it or not, we are at war with the Serbian nation (the Serbs certainly think so), and the stakes have to be very clear: Every week you ravage Kosovo is another decade we will set your country back by pulverizing you. You want 1950? We can do 1950. You want 1389? We can do 1389 too

And here's what that populist Bill O'Reilly on Fox said on 4/26/99:

If NATO is not able to wear down this Milosevic in the next few weeks, I believe that we have to go in there and drop leaflets on Belgrade and other cities and say, "Listen, you guys have got to move because we're now going to come in and we're going to just level your country. The whole infrastructure is going." Rather than put ground forces at risk where we're going to see 5,000 Americans dead, I would rather destroy their infrastructure, totally destroy it. Any target is OK. I'd warn the people, just as we did with Japan, that it's coming, you've got to get out of there, OK, but I would level that country so that there would be nothing moving—no cars, no trains, nothing.

Remember, these two were supposedly the good guys talking. So, maybe listening to their advice,

General Wesley Clark (who later ran for President as a democrat) gave NATO forces the green light to deliberately bomb schools, hospitals, irrigation networks, bridges, markets, residential neighborhoods, power plants, heating plants, gas stations, and factories turning out such products as farming equipment, cigarettes, sugar products and baby food. ALL of which they did.

After attacking a bridge deep in Serbia (far from Kosovo) causing civilian cars to fall into the river, they went back and attacked the rescue workers even though they were clearly identified as such. They attacked columns of refugees multiple times and then lied about the incidents at news conferences. The list of war crimes went on and on and on. They even hit the Chinese embassy, setting it on fire and killing 3 of its citizens.

Consider the bombing of Radio Television Serbia (RTS) on April 22. NATO spokesman Jamie Shea had stated on April 12 that "television and radio towers are only struck if they are integrated into military facilities." But RTS studios played no military role. Bombing RTS was a war crime which resulted in the deaths of at least sixteen civilians (including hair stylists). The truth is they bombed that station because its reporters were taking folks to the sites of other US/NATO war crimes (like the bombing of the refugee convoy) and exposing NATO's dishonesty.

No, on this day, this thread needs a reminder of the REAL legacy of the Clintons, who are beating the war drums again to support this war. Americans need a reminder why it's no coincidence that KLA controlled Kosovo is now Clinton Country. There's a 10 foot high statue of Bill overlooking Bill Clinton Boulevard in the capital city of Pristina. Hillary visited it in 2010. And just off the street named for her husband, there is a store named "Hillary", featuring the type of women's clothing that Hillary seems to usually wear ... including ugly pantsuits.

Now after the war, Hillary met with the Hashim Thaci. There are many photos of the two together. Thaci was the KLA thug who became the new country's Prime Minister and then President, multiple times. I say thug because he was involved in assassinations, drug smuggling, kidnappings and even human organ trafficking during and after the Kosovo War. That's according to many, including former UN War Crimes Prosecutor, Carla Del Ponte.

And despite his sordid criminal background, the Clinton Foundation invited Thaci to the 2011 Clinton Global Initiative annual meeting. And he attended in 2012 and 2013 as well. He sat next to Hillary at the 2013 meeting ... a guest of honor. Bill was arm and arm with him at the 2013 GCI meeting. Obviously, it didn't matter to the Clintons if the money Thaci donated to the Foundation might be coming from ... well ... drug or human organ smuggling.

Indeed, in 2012, Thaci's government even signed a $50,000 a month contract with The Podesta Group ... the lobbying firm co founded by John and Tony Podesta. You know ... John Podesta was Hillary's campaign chairman. And Tony is a lobbyist that bundled more than a quarter million dollars in campaign contributions for Hillary. And a 2015 email chain leaked from John Podesta's account proves the Clintons accepted campaign donations (illegally) from the Thaci's government. Robby Mook, Hillary's campaign manager wrote "I'm ok just taking the money and dealing with any attacks."

Such is the Clinton Legacy. The Bidens aren't the first democrATS to be totally corrupt. The Clintons paved the way for Obama and them. Just saying that we better remind people of that when we discuss what's going on in the Ukraine today.

I'm not quite buying your take Sundance,
An imbecilic statement by Kerry about his hopes that his pesky war won't dampen Putin's ardor for battling climate change, two ridiculous statements by Blinken. First, yesterday, he stated he was convinced that Putin wanted to remove the Ukrainian government; this after a full scale invasion of the country from three different directions by Russia, you really think Blinken? The second was a Statement by Blinken that there should not be any peace negotiations between Russia and Ukraine without the U.S. in the room(presumably to screw it up). Next I believe that Zelensky did say to the U.S. "I don't want an escape plane, I want more ammo! Does that sound like the leader of Afghanistan, or Thieu, or really any of our installed puppets, no!
Sundance, I find it very hard to see the Biden administration response so far as anything other than FUBAR. I believe they incited this war, hoped it would end quickly, so they could interject themselves into it and negotiate some Iran-U.S. type of agreement. Biden, Blinken, and Kerry look to us, Europe, and the Ukraine like the feckless buffoons they are!

I think it is a combination of both bumbling and planning. It seems to have blown up in their face like an Obama cigar.

The are no journalists working at any of the corporate media organizations, none.
They have to fabricate these amateurish propaganda efforts, for a reason.

Not one, not a single talking head, have the brass to report from a warzone, without being imbedded within a friendly military force.

Cowards every single one.

It's not just cowardice. They simply don't do journalism anymore. Remember that story about somewhere in America that had gunshot victims stuck in ambulances because the emergency department was filled with ivermectin overdosing patients... it was all false and made up, but the people claiming to be journalists didn't even pick up a phone to verify it.

While the obvious use of pictures from other times is suspicious and should be considered suspect, it might partly be explained by laziness of the media and they are so lacking for illustrations that they dig up old photos for effective stories. Either way it's very suspicious and should raise alarms.

Correct on all counts. It is lazy, suspicious and alarming but we're talking about the Marxist press who never correct themselves on national TV and only those on the internet will see the correction. Millions more won't. I think the Marxist press considers that a propaganda victory.

Not sure why Zelenskyy doesn't threaten Joe with revealing all he knows about Hunter and Joe to get some help. Given Joe's mental state, Zelenskyy could probably get Joe to launch a few nuclear weapons at Putin. Alternatively, Putin probably has some dirt on Hunter and Joe of his own.

This is a terrible way to run foreign policy and all. Making decisions based upon how badly other actors can blackmail you and your family.

I haven't believed or watched the MSM in over 40 years. It was bad then. It is deplorable now. Since "Forest Gump" I don't even believe what I see. These pics are proof that reality is a game to these monsters. The old adage, question authority, is more relevant than when it was first coined, by the very people yanking our chains now.

The entire nature of DC...

...except when President Trump was there

The ONLY time the Ruling Intelligence State was threatened and they now are entirely transparent...

Same with the COVID lies...

Imagine demanding 100% immunity from liability if physicians practiced “bad medicine”...

...for perfectly safe, thoroughly tested and not an experimental gene therapy drug

Finally. I'm not alone in my WTF response to the latest stampede of like-minded lemmings.

I once thought TDS [Trump Derangement Syndrome] was peculiar, quaint, emotionally based.... and excuseable since it seemed fleeting. Sadly, those afflicted were unable to stand back and observe their own bias....similar in denial to the racist pariahs in the US back in the 50s.

Then I observed the global adoption of CDS [Covid Derangement Syndrome] to be far more than I could personally comprehend. The sheer level of complete detachment from reality has left me agape, wondering if this level of mob mentality has been around far longer than my general observations. This too seems to have created an impenetrable thought-fortress that views any statement, let alone individual thought, that is even mildly counter than the approved narrative treated as an assault upon humanity.

Now, the world is afflicted with PDS [Putin Derangement Syndrome] across virtually all demographics, politics, and borders. It is simply astounding to watch the perpetual one-up-manship going on by all manner of people to elevate themselves to even higher ground in their repudiation of Russia's foray into Ukraine. It's as if there is a clickbait generator feasting upon the primal desires of "the masses" in a quest to attain diefication.... Hmmmmmmmmm

As I meander through the web today, I have noticed one thing that is different, and yet the same: There is only one side of the discussion available – excepting this.

Good for you. Truth is NOT what you are allowed to believe — it's the truth.
