

JANUARY 4, 2026 PROPHECY: THE OIL OF THE HOLY SPIRIT & THE NATURAL OIL OF LATIN AMERICA RELEASING A NEW LIBERTY! - Hank + Brenda

Hank + Brenda Admin

During the first Sunday of 2026, January 4th, a powerful prophetic word was released by Pastor Hank Kunneman during the 9am service at Lord of Hosts Church. In this prophecy, the Spirit of the Lord references the fire, oil, and water of His spirit manifesting in the earth in ways that would point to His position to conquest certain conflicts that have persisted in the earth.

The Lord declared that He has released His fire of righteousness and justice that speak of His divine intervention in this time to supernaturally melt away the veil of darkness and and purge the nations of the demonic strongholds that the enemy has sought to maintain. The Spirit of the Lord also said that this is the time where He is pouring out the oil of His spirit upon the next generation and the evidence would be a great liberty that is established in Latin America. We would see a sign of this divine liberty as the natural oil supply of Venezuela is released causing oil prices to greatly decrease.

Pay attention as the waters near Cuba, Honduras, and the Caribbean as the unusual shaking of the deep will be a sign of exposure as unseen structures in high places will be shaken to their core.

This is the season where God's hand is resetting the old and breaking forth the new!

PASTOR HANK KUNNEMAN | January 4, 2026 | 9:00AM Sunday Morning Service | Lord of Hosts Church, Omaha NE

So, you have read in my Word where there was a king who threw the Hebrew boys in a fiery furnace and turned up the heat seven times hotter. And some of you, you have said, but that is what I see happening in the earth, it seems as though that the intensity of the fires of afflictions have increased. It seems as though that the enemy has gained access and so the flames of affliction are hotter.

But yet I say to you, I have come at this time to arise, to appear in the midst of the fire. And I say to the earth, what will you do when you see that I have turned up my fire of judgment, my fire of righteousness and justice, my fires that shall lead to conquest over conflicts that are in the earth? For you have cried out in this day, O God come, and I am; and I am arising in the midst of the earth. And I have promised, and it was spoken through the lips of Peter on the day of the outpouring of my Spirit, that I would pour out my Spirit upon all flesh. And so, you're seeing the outpouring of my Spirit, you are experiencing the oil that comes from my power and my glory; and so there will come an intensity of things in the earth of conflicts.

But be encouraged, for I have said that I have come to recapture a generation of the children, for the children of this earth. And I am come that my honor will be seen upon this generation. For you have read history gone by of for generations the strongholds that have been in the earth, strongholds that have affected the generation of the young and even of the old. But now, as my Spirit and the intensity of my fire comes and manifests in the earth, places where there have been walls, like in Jericho's day, shall fall.

You saw and read Communism falling in the days of old. Now watch what has happened in Venezuela. The sound of freedom bells ringing shall cause a cracking together the heads of Brazil and Colombia. I will intervene and break the strongholds that a threefold cord of freedom shall be seen in you, South America. Listen to me Colombia, Brazil, Venezuela, you shall experience my liberty, my freedom for this is the oil, this is the outpouring of my Spirit. For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty, and I am showing the earth.

Do not think that it is just the might of your armory. It is the work of my hands through the might of your armory, yes, but it is the work of my hands that is bringing the deliverance. Watch places that have had strongholds. Venezuela, Columbia, Brazil, Cuba you are on my eyes, and you will be busted free.

And I will show a sign, Cuba. Outside of your waters there will come a great shaking beneath the waters, and this will show that I am shaking the earth; and it will be felt in the Caribbean and down into/around the Honduras area. And they will say why is the earth shaking underneath the water? Because I am shaking hell and the strongholds thereof.

They say you have ceased, Venezuela, for the oil. Yes, this is true that there is that which has been brought to the forefront of this earthly battle. But the enemy has sought and was seeking to bring war and to bring conflict through Venezuela and to control the oil of the earth. But the spiritual oil and the natural oil does not belong to the forces of darkness or to those who thought they could bring a one world order.

This is my reset, and the oil of the natural and the oil of the Spirit is mine, says the Lord. Therefore. I have said I will shake the earth, that the gold and silver is mine and you will see through the natural oil that gold and silver. And there will be a revaluing of currency and there will be a flow not only of oil in the earth that will cause the pressure and cause that which has suppressed the people of nations, I will lift it through the oil of the natural. But this is the work of the oil of my Spirit, says the Living God, that is destroying yokes and undoing heavy burdens through the oil of my Spirit. And it will be seen in the signs of the natural oil and its refineries. And I will do this, says the Lord, and watch as the prices of oil go down, down, down, down, down. And a surge of acceleration shall come unto the economies of the earth.

But I speak to you, America, because you have cried out to me. I will show the earth what a nation looks like when they have called on God to come. For blessed is the nation who the Lord is their God, and I will show the earth. But do not think that it's just the natural oils that shall flow in abundance, but this is the sign of what I have promised, I will pour out my Spirit. Look for the signs of freedom in the earth, it is coming. And yes, Islam, Islam is being shaken and you will see it.

I'm not just healing nations by capturing the oil, but I am healing nations by the releasing of the oil of gladness and freedom and liberty and healing by the work of my hands.

I said to you, behold the new. You'll see it says, the Living God.

You say, what is happening? I remind you I tore the veil that was in the Temple from top to bottom. And once again, I am tearing the veils of deception off of the peoples of the earth, off of nations, that have believed the lies and the false, that have gravitated to evil and to structures and systems and religions that are false. Veils are being torn down, therefore look to the Middle East that I have already prophesied and declared to you before, and I say it to you again, the veils are coming off of the women of the Middle East and this is a sign of the oil, the liberty; and the veils and the strongholds that are falling, says the Lord. Keep an eye on Iran. You are days away from freedom, says the Spirit of God
