In last week's column, we noted the popularity of Hamas terrorists with BLM representatives. This week, we'll consider the other main contingent of Hamas Boosters: foreigners, who, for reasons I can't understand, are in my country.

In the past few weeks, Muslims and Arabs have poured into the streets in nearly every U.S. city to celebrate the slaughter of Israelis, while wearing scarves, keffiyehs and other clown outfits, waving the flags of Palestine, Egypt, Algeria, Iraq, Lebanon, Morocco, Yemen, Turkey, Afghanistan, India, Pakistan, Nigeria, and on and on.

It's so obvious that these people don't belong here that the immediate reaction of a number of politicians was to demand that their visas be revoked. (Nobody looked at anti-war protests in the '60s and said, Revoke their visas!)

Question: Why are we importing millions of people from lesser cultures who will inevitably despise and resent the West for its very success?

This isn't the old They hate us for our freedoms! Rather, it is simply an acknowledgment of the fact that the most common and destructive human emotion is jealousy. People will brag about being gluttons, prideful, greedy, angry, lustful and lazy. The only venal sin no one will cop to is envy. That's how insidious it is.

Consider the "open letter" from 33 Harvard student groups blaming Israelis for their own slaughter. In addition to about a dozen Muslim and Arab groups, the letter was signed by clubs for immigrants from various locales notable for their high levels of corruption and leprosy (e.g., Bangladesh, Nepal, Bengal and South Asia).

You think Harvard had a problem with the "Bengali Association of Students" before the 1965 Immigration Act?

Freshly installed and deeply unimpressive Harvard president Claudine Gay (daughter of Haitian immigrants) issued a kumbaya statement in response to the bloodthirsty student letter, expressing sadness about both the 1,500 slaughtered Israelis AND "the war in Israel and Gaza now underway."

At this, billionaire donors to the university finally began to notice the insanity they've been funding. A couple of Israeli billionaires, Idan and Batia Ofer, quit Harvard's Kennedy School of Government board in protest. Another Jewish billionaire, Bill Ackman, demanded the names of the students behind the letter. Gentile -- and Republican! -- Ken Griffin (cumulative gifts to Harvard: more than $500 million) also raised a ruckus.

The same thing happened at other institutions of higher learning.

Sorry to roll my eyes, but where have they been? The gleeful cheering for the mass murder of Israelis is only the latest expression of hate by inferior cultures toward the superior culture of the West -- of which the donors are a shining example.

Here are a few other signposts of our descent into Calcutta.

In the last few years, statues of one great man after another have been toppled, among them: Christopher Columbus, Ulysses S. Grant, Thomas Jefferson, Robert E. Lee, Teddy Roosevelt and Francis Scott Key. White, white, white, white, white and white.

Portraits of scientists at Rockefeller University who'd won the Nobel Prize or Lasker Award had to be removed on the grounds that they were all white men. The portraits made medical student Max Jordan Nguemini Tiako sad, so they had to go.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art disemboweled Beethoven's opera, "Fidelio," to turn it into a story about BLM triumphing over a white supremacist conspiracy to oppress immigrants and people of color (with a discussion sponsored by Columbia University on dismantling "systems of incarceration").

Responding to student demand, the University of Pennsylvania removed a portrait of William Shakespeare and replaced it with a picture of a black feminist writer.

And how did Gay become the president of Harvard in the first place? Obviously, it was a rigorous competition -- just as it was for Vice President Kamala Harris, Supreme Court Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson and Sen. Laphonza Butler.

Gay's "historic" appointment gave Harvard its first black president! (Who could've seen that coming?)

The shocked Harvard alums might not even be admitted today, with their cisgender white privilege. The college's admissions office describes its job as "antiracism work."

But when the exact same people who hate our country turned out to hate Israel, too, our clueless elites were gobsmacked. Gee, where'd that come from? We thought you liked us.

Of course barbarians hate Israel! Surrounded by enemies, Jews transformed an unforgiving desert into a first-rate civilization. Did anyone imagine the Holocaust would temper the bitter jealousy? That's like heterosexual white coeds claiming to be "binary" to earn woke street cred. You're still pretty, and they still hate you.

The conflict is far larger than a few hundred disaffected immigrants, “colonized” and “indigenous” people cheering mass murder by invading paragliders.

This is an endemic problem. Israel can't do much about the neighborhood, but why on Earth is the U.S. importing preposterous foreigners from third-rate cultures? The failure of their ancestors to create anything worthwhile, certainly compared to the stupendous accomplishments of the West, is too glaringly obvious. Inviting millions upon millions of them here, to gawk at our magnificent civilization, is a guarantee of perpetual strife and resentment.

It could never work. It was always an insane idea.

Instead of trampling on the free speech rights of people who hate the West, how about avoiding the problem altogether by leaving them where they are? They'll like it! Vastly fewer “white supremacists” to oppress them. They can hate us all they want. Just do it from their own countries.

Staple a Green Card to Their 'Kill the Jews...

Ann Coulter: God bless you for stating what is the truth. The DAMNING, ugly, marvelous truth. These people who hate us must leave. There is no other way. We are out of room for bottom-of-the-barrel immigrants who hate us. Let them hate us for inventing electricity, antibiotics, modern government, thought, systematization, industry and enterprise from their hovels in their failed states, but do not let them bring about our own failure. Perhaps we could export some of our own worst (a certain 12% of the population who commits over half the crime, white liberals and 2nd generation immigrants who have not progressed) to spice up and diversify those countries!

Hilarious. But let me double down on this: none of the ideas the savages protesting in the streets are pushing on our country, like communism, socialism, etc, are original to them. Actually, many of those ideas stem from Jewish intellectuals. Ironic. These immigrants couldn't even THINK of how to run a government past crude monarchies and warlords, why are they here protesting? I will grant that their own diabolical methods of killing their enemies are quite original to them.

In order to answer the question why Democrats import millions of Third World migrants here, one has to look at the ideologues of the Far Left movement. One of them, Susan Sontag called White race a cancer of humanity, that no Mozart, Pascal, Boolean Algebra could redeem what this civilization wrought upon the world. Another Harvard professor Noel Ignatieff proposed to abolish White race all together. There are thousands of Ivy League professors like that who had brainwashed the minds of current leaders of this country to hate Western Civilization in general and White people in particular. And the quickest way to destroy it, is through demographic replacement of White people. That's exactly why Democrats opened up the floodgates of our country to the Third World savages.

The bagel crowd wanted it, they voted for it and now they're shocked to see the consequences of it.

And btw, what's with all the Palestinian "students" everywhere? Great example of how easy it is to get around what's left of our border control by getting a student visa. These people have the same history of intellectual achievement as Haiti and yet they are everywhere. Any bets on how much Uncle Sucker has put up to guarantee their student "loans"?

The "bagel crowd" (by whom I mean non-religious and anti-religious Jews whose "liberal" or "progressive" identity trumps all other values), in abandoning Judaism, adopted the foundational leftist belief that human beings are inherently good and all the negative attributes we associate with human nature are the result of "society."

Take a hundred thousand Palestinian Arabs out of the Middle East and dump them in NYC and on college campuses and watch them eat bagels too. Even though no one is supposed to assimilate to our oppressive culture, somehow it was assumed the Palestinians would.

That's how I would explain it!

This is all, actually, really good news, because for the first time, in a long time, "The Left's" politics of division, finally cleaved one slice too many-

<https://myriadmike.substack.com/p/the-politics-of-division-just-cleaved>

Effectively "splitting" their base, because they didn't know, or simply "forgot" that many in their camp, hate Israel, and support the Palestinians.

I welcome it!

If the Left keeps this up, pretty soon, they won't have a base at all; Just wait until all those Muslim immigrants and illegal aliens find-out what The Left thinks about homosexuality!

Good times!

Paging Heather MacDonald!

Isn't America's decades long immigration policy just another instance of "Mismatch?"

Here we are affirmatively reaching out to people from countries — and dysfunctional cultures — which are clearly not suited to the land, customs and values of our nation. And, like the "Mismatch" theory holds, the result is failure, resentment and anger.

Would the Japanese make such an error? The Chinese? Would the Israelis act affirmatively to bring in Muslim Arabs?

Of course not. They know the dangers of "Mismatch."

For their own benefit let's allow the great majority of mismatched aliens from Africa, Central America and most of Asia to stay where they are — and prosper.

Win-Win!

Does Israel wring its hands when Muslims commit horrible terror attacks in Europe or America? Do they rush us an aid package? When bad things happen to America, Israel's greatest ally, they merely shrug their shoulders. Israel demanded Palestine be given to them and knew what kind of rough neighborhood they were moving in to.

How come Jews are the only people in America you can't offend without suffering serious financial and professional repercussions? Yet American politicians are all but calling for collective punishment and mass killings of Palestinians to the raucous applause of all conservative media outlets.

American Jews have been at the forefront of multiracializing America since a superduper majority white America we had until 1965 displeased and offended both they and the Kennedy family. Now America's increasing diversity is blowing back on them since they helped import people who bear no guilt over Jewish sufferings in WWII and can't be guilt tripped by words like Nazi and white supremacist. And thanks to racial diversity we have less free speech and we all must walk on eggshells so as not to offend unless someone wants to trash white people in which case you will be praised and get your own show on MSNBC

I brought this quote to Ann's attention several months ago. She called it "perceptive."

"Western man towers over the rest of the world in ways so large as to be almost inexpressible. It's Western exploration, science, and conquest that have revealed the world to itself. Other races feel like subjects of Western power long after colonialism, imperialism, and slavery have disappeared.

"The charge of racism puzzles whites who feel not hostility, but only baffled good will, because they don't grasp what it really means: humiliation.

"The white man presents an image of superiority even when he isn't conscious of it. And, superiority excites envy. Destroying white civilization is the inmost desire of the league of designated victims we call "minorities."

That's funny. As neither Ken Griffin nor any of the Jewish billionaires have any problem with the over the top anti-white racial hatred at Harvard or any other Ivy League school or university. But it's all hands on deck for anti-semitism. I don't like Hamas nor do I want any Palestinians or other Arabs brought to America but I'm also sick and tired of America being a vassal state of Israel and our Constitutional form of government replaced by Jewish and non-Jewish oligarchs.

It's worse. They will not allow any mention of this double-standard. Any attempt to bring up how LGBT people are treated in Israel versus the areas under PLO or Hamas control (or any Arab and Muslim country for that matter) is called "pinkwashing" (?) and is not to be tolerated among the woke. Why?

Again, anti-Semitism is the only credible explanation.

Thank you for this important update on crime Ann. Would somebody, anybody in a leadership position call this what it is: A terrorist attack on the US. Yes. On the United States. US soil. Makes little difference if it is at the southern border, northern border, on a shipping port, big city, our used to be valued universities. We the people must speak up, to/our leadership....who have allowed terrorists freely in to terrorize us on our own turf. Inexcusable. I think we are so far past the visa checking. We still must, it is our duty, to support our allies. But not at the expense of our own US citizen expense on our own unbordered land.

It just might be a more straightforward problem/solution than yet discussed. How many fifth-column foreign provocateurs/propagandists have been placed in this country with ill-intent by their home countries.

Where is the discussion of Middle East $Billions being pumped into the Ivy's and all top 20 schools which has successfully compromised them. Also interesting that there are so many pro$Islamic "student" organizations started by foreign students before they even unpack their bags. These organizations are funded with student activity fee funds and thus, the universities are effectively funding anti-American propaganda machines.

Without a doubt, we are admitting trained foreign agents who are only registered for classes and not their nefarious political activities.

"But when the exact same people who hate our country turned out to hate Israel, too, our clueless elites were gobsmacked. "

A similar thing happened a few years ago in Louisiana (I believe, though the specific place is irrelevant) when Black parents became irritated that their children's education was being watered down by program money being diverted to new arrival hispanics. I guess the same situation applies in Chicago, too, where recently black residents have demonstrated outrage at civic facilities being turned into lodgings for new illegal arrivals.

Bongino has referred to the Left as being cannibalistic and that eventually they will eat each other as one group's grievance starts to imping upon the grievance of another group. LGFUKSTIKQ groups of course support fellow bottom feeding maggot palestinians because, at present, both hate western civilization, but there will come a time when enough Palestines get elected to school boards and congressional seats and they begin to wipe out Gstick policies and books. That will be fun to watch. Entire skyscrapers might be sold out so that the Pales can watch the Stiks fall past windows on the way to the pavement below.

After having watched Rich Man's Trick (on Rumble), I find it impossible to generate any interest or sympathy for either side. We are being played. 911 generated enough anti muslim sentiment to allow the Patriot Act to be passed.

Covid was unleashed so as to finish the groundwork started by climate change hysteria....energy limits, centralized control over energy use, the ability to shut off your car or electricity if you've used 'too much,' digital currency that will allow you to buy unlimited bug burgers but not another tank of gas or a steak, etc etc etc. Rush always used to say that the Dems' ultimate goal was the abolition of elections, covid allowed them to make a fast move on that, too. Quietly altering votes in machines was one thing that quickly morphed into water breaks (and fire alarm breaks) giving the opportunity to drag large suitcases of ballots out from under tables and not even video of the event was enough to ruffle the hems of justice.

In 'unrelated' news.....;-) I drilled a 2" drink bottle cap nearly dead center with my .223 at 150 yards the other day.

During the Summer of George Floyd, the anti-white hate spewing from BLM, Antifa and their supporters in the universities, media, democrat governments and corporate America was much more widespread than anything going on now. "Consider the "open letter" from 33 Harvard student groups blaming Israelis for their own slaughter."

No, the specifically blame the Israeli regime. There was no "bloodthirst."

"We, the undersigned student organizations, hold the Israeli regime entirely responsible for all the unfolding violence."

It's as if the people who condemn the letter didn't read it. Here it is:

""Today's events did not occur in a vacuum. For the last two decades, millions of Palestinians in Gaza have been forced to live in an open-air prison. Israeli officials promise to "open the gates of hell," and the massacres in Gaza have already commenced. Palestinians in Gaza have no shelters for refuge and nowhere to escape. In the coming days, Palestinians will be forced to bear the full brunt of Israel's violence.""

""The apartheid regime is the only one to blame. Israeli violence has structured every aspect of Palestinian existence for 75 years. From systematized land seizures to routine airstrikes, arbitrary detentions to military checkpoints, and enforced family separations to targeted killings, Palestinians have been forced to live in a state of death, both slow and sudden.""

I would love a Zionist or Israel apologist to actually respond to the points here. To a non-Zionist they are not unreasonable.

"Freshly installed and deeply unimpressive Harvard president Claudine Gay (daughter of Haitian immigrants) issued a kumbaya statement in response to the bloodthirsty student letter, expressing sadness about both the 1,500 slaughtered Israelis AND "the war in Israel and Gaza now underway.""

Perhaps she knows the "war" will include the deliberate targeting of civilians, but I can understand how this would be beyond the pale to a Zionist - Israel only acts in self-defense after all.
