People are so easy to play. A globalist says Trump isn't a globalist (which trump is) and people just automatically believe it without realizing it's part of the con to create more authenticity for trumps role playing character among the population. It's nothing more than reverse psychological propaganda and people are eating it up. This is why they laugh at us and think we are dumb roaches that should be depopulated.

Trump committed genocide by killing 30 million men, women and children, with his Operation Depopulation Warp Speed Death shots. Which Trump still supports to this day. Nobody who commits genocide on his own people, knowingly or unknowingly, is fit to lead, be president or should even be supported or followed. Yet Americans couldn't gargle trumps sack any harder.

The fact that Americans make excuses about this...fact, tells you everything you need to know about this country and it's people. We're beyond fckn done and cooked.

As long as you act how people want you to act, tell them exactly what they want to hear and put on a good show (political theatre), nobody cares what you've done or said.

Which is why Trump said;

"I could stand in the middle of 5th Avenue and shoot somebody and I wouldn't lose voters," Trump said.

That's because trump knows how dumb and cult like people are and that they could be careless about what you've done. It's all about the show. Even if people do care, they'll make an excuse. As long as you put on a good enough show/act and tell people what they want to hear, the sheeple will love a pied Piper like Trump no matter what. Even if he commits genocide.

Someone like myself who points all this out, then becomes the bad guy from the cults perspective, instead of the guy who killed 30 million men, women and children. I become the bad guy, instead of the guy who locked the country down and induced medical martial law. How sick is that...

That's just how Stockholm syndrome works though. No politician is going to save us from what's coming, nor will voting. Grow the fck up people.

Be honest, Trump got away with medical martial law, locking down the economy and country and committed genocide. Trump got away with all of these things Obama and hillary never would have gotten away with. They would've been hated to this very day. But since it's trump...it's all gravy to Patrick swazy baby and hes loved even more. Especially after this deep state dog and pony show political theatre assassination. Worked like a charm. People fall even further into the fake left right paradigm.

I'd like Trump supporters to explain themselves to all the peoples families who had someone die from the shot, those injured by it and everyone els without a voice, why Trump should still be cheered for.

Forgetting all the above, Presidents are not elected, they are selected. Presidents don't run the country, the deep state, intelligence community, military etc do. Presidents are just a singular figure, a front man/head/prop for these groups, to give the illusion of a singular person incharge. Your votes do not matter or count, they haven't for many generations. Only the counters matter and we know who runs that now don't we. If voting made a difference they wouldn't let us do it. The left right paradigm is fake and ment to control the population. It is a invisible political cage for political slaves. All those involved in the left right paradigm are controlled and playing the game or getting played in the game.
