CONCIT.ORG site commenced April 2014 as a resource for Concerned Citizens—initially focussing on the impact of Islam on the West. Interest in April 2015 attracted 55,640 unique visitors.

Since Nelson Mandela and the communist African National Congress (ANC) took over South Africa, more than 70,000 whites have been murdered and untold numbers have been robbed, raped and tortured.

Official statistics on farm attacks are non-existent, due to what human rights groups have described as a “cover-up” by the notoriously corrupt — and potentially complicit — South African government.

Victims are often restrained, harmed with weapons such as machetes and pitchforks, burned with boiling water or hot irons, dragged behind vehicles and shot. Female victims are often raped during attacks.

The most reliable numbers are released by the Transvaal Agricultural Union, which represents commercial farmers, and civil rights group AfriForum.

According to the TAU, last year there were 345 attacks resulting in 70 deaths — the highest death toll since 2008. In 2015 there were 318 attacks resulting in 64 deaths, and the year before there were 277 attacks resulting in 67 deaths.

In total, between 1998 and the end of 2016, 1848 people have been murdered in farm attacks — 1187 farmers, 490 family members, 147 farm employees, and 24 people who happened to be visiting the farm at the time.

While South Africa has one of the highest rates of violent crime anywhere in the world, the attacks on white farmers are no ordinary crimes.

In a 2014 report, “The Reality of Farm Tortures in South Africa”, AfriForum wrote that “the horror experienced during farm tortures is almost incomprehensible”.

“The well-known ‘blood sisters’ from the South African company Crimescene-cleanup have rightly indicated that, in their experience, farm tortures are by far the most horrific acts of violence in South Africa,” the report said.

“They are of the opinion that the term

‘farm murders’ is misleading and that the terms ‘farm terror’ and ‘farm tortures’ are more suitable.”

Earlier this month, for example, 64-year-old Nicci Simpson was tortured with a power drill during an attack involving three men at her home on a farm in the Vaal area, about two hours drive from Johannesburg.

When paramedics arrived, they found three dead dogs, and the woman lying in a pool of blood, spokesman Russel Meiring told News24. “They used a drill to torture her,” police spokesman Lungelo Dlamini said.

LAST month, British woman Sue Howarth and her husband Robert Lynn were woken at 2am by three men breaking into a window of their remote farm in Dullstroom, a small town in the northeast of South Africa, about 240km from the nearest capital city.

The couple, who had lived in the area for 20 years, were tied up, stabbed, and tortured with a blowtorch for several hours. The masked men stuffed a plastic bag down Mrs Howarth’s throat, and attempted to strangle her husband with a bag around his neck.

The couple were bundled into their own truck, still in their pyjamas, and driven to a roadside where they were shot. Mrs Howarth, 64, a former pharmaceutical company executive, was shot twice in the head. Mr Lynn, 66, was shot in the neck.

Miraculously he survived, and managed to flag down a passer-by early on Sunday morning. Mrs Howarth, who police said was “unrecognisable” from her injuries, had multiple skull fractures, gunshot wounds and “horrific” burns to her breasts.

“Sue was discovered amongst some trees, lying in a ditch,” writes Jana Boshoff, reporter for the local Middelburg Observer newspaper. “Her rescuers managed to find her by following her groans of pain and then noticing drag marks from the road into the field.

“Her head was covered with a towel. Her eyes were swollen shut. She was partially clothed with just scraps of her shirt remaining. Her breasts and upper body was bloody. The plastic bag, shoved down her throat, took some effort to remove because her jaw was clamped down tightly.

“How she managed to breathe with the bag in her throat remains a mystery. One of her rescuers later recalled how Sue was unresponsive except for the constant groaning. Whilst the man ran back to the road to see if an ambulance has not arrived yet, she managed to curl one of her arms around her breasts in a last attempt to protect herself.”

The three men responsible for killing Mrs Howarth — Themba William Yika, Nkosinathi Yika and Lucas Makua — were arrested soon after, and more than 150 farmers turned up to demonstrate outside court.

But any form of justice is incredibly rare, and white farmers are increasingly questioning their future.

The number of white farmers in South Africa has halved in a little over two decades to just 30,000. Thousands more farms are up for sale.

“The farmers live in fear, because being a farmer in South Africa is the most dangerous occupation in the world,” Henk van de Graaf, spokesman for the TAU, told Swedish newspaper Nya Tider last year.

“The average murder ratio per 100,000 or the population in the world is nine, I believe. In South Africa, it is 54. But for the farming community it is 138, which is the highest for any occupation in the world.”

Since 2007, at the direction of the government, South African police have stopped releasing statistics about the race of the victims. Monitoring group Genocide Watch says the cover-up has been exacerbated by American and European governments, which have “remained silent about the problem, reinforcing the campaign of denial”.

Claudia Bryan is a South African activist living in London. Her grandmother owned a bakery in South Africa. One day six blacks entered the bakery and gang-raped her. They then tried to shoot her. The gun jammed. In anger they gang raped her again and the 70-something woman died. Robbery was not the motive.

In the context of farm tortures in South Africa, the focus appears to be more on the creation of terror and fear within that population.

It should be noted that, historically, there has been political tension between South African farmers and South Africa’s ruling African National Congress (ANC). Portions of minority communities believe that farm tortures carry with them an element of revenge on the white population as a result of South Africa’s history of racial segregation.

Many believe that there is also a political element, as the military wing of the African National Congress historically defined farms as ‘legitimate war zones’ in which soft targets could also be attacked and killed.

Farmers are still frequently the targets of verbal political attacks by senior members of the ruling party. Furthermore, AfriForum recently filed a complaint of hate speech against the ANC for its continued use of the so-called struggle song, entitled Shoot the Boer.

Another popular struggle song entitled Kill the Boer, kill the farmer was declared to be hate speech by the South African Human Rights Commission in 2003.

(We were contacted by a person from South Africa with these (and many more) photos to get the horror of what is happening to the white farmers by blacks, out into the West. We ask that you share this article about their plight.)

'Bury them alive': White South Africans

Robert Lynn and Susan Howarth were tortured at their farm in South Africa.

In any other country, such a crime would be almost unthinkable. But in South Africa, these kinds of farm attacks are happening nearly every day. This year so far, there have been more than 70 attacks and around 25 murders in similar attacks on white farmers.

Human rights groups say the number of attacks is increasing.

While sometimes farmers and their families are tortured to obtain information, such as the whereabouts of keys to the safe, human rights groups say the excessive brutality may be intended to send a message to the general farming community: get out of our country.

farming community — get out of our country.

Victims are often restrained, harmed with weapons such as machetes and pitchforks, burned with boiling water or hot irons, dragged behind vehicles and shot. Female victims are often raped during attacks.

AfriForum warns that the attacks are becoming increasingly sophisticated, military-style raids, but says community farm watch groups and sharing of information on WhatsApp and Facebook were thwarting a “significant” number.

In 2010, high-profile ANC member Julius Malema sang “Shoot the Farmer, Kill the Boer”, which Genocide Watch describes as “once a revolutionary song, but now an incitement to commit genocide”.

Malema was convicted for hate speech and the singing of the song was banned. but iust seven months later president Jacob Zuma sand the song himself at an ANC event, in direct contempt of the judge's ruling.

Malema was later kicked out the ANC, forming his own Marxist party, the Economic Freedom Fighters, which is now the third-largest party in parliament. Recently, Malema has been travelling the country urging black South Africans to take back land from "Dutch thugs".

"People of South Africa, where you see a beautiful land, take it, it belongs to you," Malema was quoted in The Telegraph as telling parliament.

Perhaps in response to populist pressure from Malema, Zuma earlier this month called for the confiscation of white-owned land without compensation. Zuma urged the "black parties" in the parliament to unite to form the two-thirds majority that would be needed to make the necessary change to the country's constitution.

Last week, during a debate in parliament about the farm attacks, an ANC MP shouted "Bury them alive!" while MP Pieter Groenewald was speaking about the plight of white farmers.

"This is proof that the utterances of political leaders could lead to violence and murders and that the issue of farm murders is of little importance to the ANC," AfriForum's head of community safety, Ian Cameron, said in a statement afterwards. "Certain members of the ANC were chatting during the debate and not listening nor partaking at all."

While right-wing groups have claimed South Africa is experiencing "white genocide", Genocide Watch disputes that characterisation. According to the group's founding president, Dr Gregory Stanton, "early warnings of genocide are still deep in South African society, though genocide has not begun".

Economic Freedom Fighters leader Julius Malema.

“The fact that farm murders do not comply with the legal definition of genocide in no way renders the crisis that white farmers in particular face in South Africa as less imminent,” AfriForum deputy CEO Ernst Roets wrote in a report this month.

“It is important to note that not all who are murdered on farms are white people. On the other hand, it is equally important to note that black farmers are not subjected to the same levels of torture as their white counterparts.”

Australian rice farmer Graeme Kruger, who emigrated from South Africa to New Zealand in 1997 before coming to Australia in 2012, said an increasing number of white farmers were getting out.

“I would like to say, I certainly have never been and was never a supporter of the apartheid regime, and I certainly didn’t immigrate because I wanted to get away from South Africa,” said Kruger, now executive director of the Ricegrowers’ Association of Australia.

“We supported and openly celebrated the changes. But equally what is happening now is not right. To me it’s about humanity. Whether it’s the old apartheid regime or black-on-black violence or xenophobia, leaders need to be very careful with their positions and inciting violence towards anyone.”

Kruger’s family, like many, has been touched by violence. “My wife’s aunt — it wasn’t a farm situation — they broke in through the roof, stole her TV, tied her up with cords and she was killed,” he said.

Asked whether he feared South Africa would become another Zimbabwe, where white farmers have all but been driven out, Kruger was uncertain.

“My family back in South Africa have chosen not to [get out], and they love living there,” he said. “They have a very hopeful, pragmatic view, but they are also concerned.

“South Africans have got this undying ability to believe in the bigger picture, and I’m talking about many blacks. There are lots of wonderful people of all colours that believe all of this stuff is wrong.

“The question I would ask, given the rhetoric, is there a future for farming in South Africa? It’s not just about, is there a future for white farmers. It’s three times more dangerous to be a farmer than it is to be a policeman. It’s sad — it’s not what we want.”

70,000 Whites Murdered in 'Modern' South Africa; Obama's African Legacy

July 26, 2015   AFP   Audio   172

By Paul Fromm

Since Nelson Mandela and the communist African

One of the South African Family Relief Project volunteers, who drove this writer around Durban during a recent fact-finding visit to South Africa, related the experience of a co-worker. This man and his adult son were working on their boat at their home in an upscale area when two blacks came up the driveway and demanded the keys to the son's car. When the father refused, the blacks shot him dead and fled.

Joulene Trichardt, my Johannesburg guide's daughter-in-law, was one of the managers at a nightclub called Truth several years ago. The nightclub was open once a week for parties and dances. One night, four armed blacks burst in, firing handguns, and attacked the staff. They herded the managers and the disc jockey into an office. They beat one manager with a pistol and kicked Ms. Trichardt repeatedly when she disobeyed their orders to keep her eyes down and not to look. The bandits made off with the night's proceeds—400,000 rand (roughly $40,000)—as well as the staff's cellphones. They were never caught.

Every white person I met feared for his physical safety. Crime—murder, robbery and rape—is rampant. South Africa has the highest rape rate in the world and the second highest murder rate, making the country more dangerous than most parts of Iraq.

For a bribe, police case files can be made to disappear and the case never comes to court. Traffic stops are often an excuse for a bribe. A hundred rand note ($10), my hosts told me, would usually make a traffic stop go away.

Worse, police are sometimes the perpetrators of carjackings and robberies.

One incident—the attempted kidnapping of a rich Chinese couple in an upper class area of Johannesburg—was captured on a cellphone and seemed to be perpetrated by police in the guise of stopping to question the couple. The video has gone viral on the Internet.

Over 70,000 whites have been murdered in South Africa since power was handed to the ANC. Over 5,000 farmers have been murdered. Many of these killings involve hideous torture. An old terrorist chant of the ANC is: “Shoot the farmer! Kill the Boer!” This song has been sung in recent times even by President Jacob Zuma.

The communist ideology of the ANC calls for the eventual seizure of many farms. So traumatized and beleaguered are South Africa's farmers that farm production has slumped, and South Africa is now a food-importing country.

What is going on in South Africa is a slow genocide of the white population. The mounting homicidal violence against whites, the denial of access to jobs for whites and the erasing of their history and culture mean genocide on the installment plan. Could America be next?

Obama's African Legacy: Poverty, Crime, Terrorism

By Bill White

With his presidency nearing an end, Barack Hussein Obama may find his legacy in Africa. On Qadaffi set up joint development banks, which were profitably investing in African infrastructure—something the United States, Britain, Russia and China have all failed to do in a meaningful way.

Besides subsidizing food, gas, education and housing for his own people, Qadaffi was making a minimum annual investment of $6 billion in African countries—a huge amount given the tiny size of Africa's economy. More importantly, Qadaffi had set up a Libyan foreign exchange bank, which made a currency trading market in those 37 nations, allowing them to trade among each other. While Africa is not a nation, under Qadaffi's influence it was acting like an autonomous economic entity.

This, of course, is why Obama, dancing at the end of strings held by international bankers, murdered Qadaffi and destroyed his banking system.

Obama acted like one of the old African chieftains, willing to sell his own people into slavery.

Or take Jean-Pierre Bemba, the Congolese leader currently facing trumped-up war crimes charges in The Hague. Bemba was elected president of the Congo with 70% of the vote. He and his staff held all-night meetings to brainstorm how to bring industry and information technology

It is no surprise but Rwandan President Paul Kagame has recently taken up a cry more familiar to America's manipulated and ignorant black masses—the cry of blame for the white man.

Like in every “liberated” African nation, from Libya to South Sudan to Nigeria, South Africa is also facing economic collapse and extreme violence; it is likely only years away from joining the other three in civil war. White people are being blamed for the problems there, and their property is being seized.

Remember Darfur? The Western powers would prefer that you forget it. It's currently in the midst of a brutal civil war. Nigeria? Obama sent David Axelrod there to “change” the government. But Boko Haram isn't going anywhere.

Everywhere you look in Africa, Obama has impoverished his father's own peoples. And everywhere you look, global bankers are getting rich off white and black poverty—all the while blaming the white man for the problems there.

172 COMMENTS ON 70,000 WHITES MURDERED IN 'MODERN' SOUTH AFRICA; OBAMA'S AFRICAN LEGACY

Mike Jackson SEPTEMBER 17,

2017 AT 02:58

It is distressing that Man's inhumanity to one another is happening in South Africa, the U.S.A., and other nations. I, a citizen of the U.S.A., applauded the historic transformation and also lived there for three years.

The many opportunities that white S.A. citizens had to share their accomplishments with all willing participants were stagnated due to their selfishness.

Even when, as I learned over there, so many of the non-European people earned education and training only to be denied employment! It was in their words "A never ending game"!

Some of you commenters are vomiting the same hatred of genocide murderers throughout history.

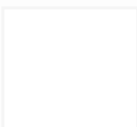

You will not win; for God's people will inherit the Earth and we will share the bounties and goodness with each other.

ASR Martins SEPTEMBER 15,

2017 AT 01:19

Your comment is totally out of touch. There is no white genocide in South Africa. The murder statistics are absolute fake statistics. AfriForum (The official white farmers association who drives the white farmers “murder” campaign) admits that activist like Steve Hofmeyr and Sunette Bridges (celebrities) are cooking up all sorts of fake news and fake statistics to support their lies. Everything is not like it is supposed to be but the situation in South Africa is a far cry from what these people wants us to believe.

business....you must simply seek the light, and seek a world of knowledge that you realize exists, but is not sought after by the masses. You then become enlightened.

You have made it to the ranks of the worlds most elite group. You have made it here because you chose to seek. Chose to seek the massive knowledge and power that is provided to those that wish to become enlightened. The path of enlightenment is not difficult, but it will not come to those who do not wish to find it. Never before have we sought out, in any outlet be it traditional print or digital media, a new membership, available to the public. But we now realize that the public is who seeks knowledge, and wishes to use it in a way that helps the masses become enlightened, and live in a way that enlightened ones do ! Now is the new era of the Illuminati! It is simple. You simply must commit. Commit to the plan of enlightenment, agree to further the cause of mans god given right to not live in the dark, to be free, and to live how he was made to live, enlightened. We require that individuals that want to join our branch of The Illuminati pay a small fee to be added to the membership records, and receive an official Illuminati membership certificate. Our goal is to operate as honestly and efficiently as possible. As you imagine, we like to operate in the shadows as much as possible.

A scorpion asks a frog to carry it across a river. The frog hesitates, afraid of being stung, but the scorpion argues that if it did so, they would both drown. Considering this, the frog agrees, but midway across the river the scorpion does indeed sting the frog, dooming them both. Basie Martins MAY 18, 2017

You are delusional mate. I have the true statistics verified by AfriForum. Yours are fake. Even Sunette Bridges and others have since updated their websites and documents with the correct data. Some even stopped the farm murder campaign altogether. Can you give me the names of the 70 000 people killed since 1994?

Thought so for see those people do not exist. Fake news. Fake propaganda. Fake statistics.

The whole campaign was built on wrong statistics. I do not believe that it was on purpose. AfriForum and others have since realized the truth although some of them just carry on with the propaganda knowing that the statistics do not back their statements. How sad?

Just look around you and you'll see that white people live in abject fear. How many white women do you see on foot in the open after sunset? It is not because they don't have time for strolls, it's because they feel unsafe. People fear experiencing car trouble when they drive in this country, and are frequently assaulted should they be in such a situation. I know/knew people who bore the brunt of violent crime. As a matter of fact I can easily produce AT LEAST 10 NAMES. Where do you get your murder statistics? The fact that you are Afrikaans speaking and white doesn't redeem you from being challenged in the use of grey matter.

Basie Martins MAY 8, 2017 AT

This is fake news! I am an Afrikaans speaking white citizen of South Africa and I can tell you now that this article (the section about the killing of white people in South Africa) is not the truth. It is false propaganda by white South Africans purely because of fake statistics. The real statistics proves that about 1% of all murders in South Africa is on white people. That is an average of a mere 169

Too bad, we as whites sometimes seem to think we're entitled to do as we please, ravishing and raping, killing to get our way, then when people give it back in kind some of us want to play victim, South African whites had it coming and have no one to blame but themselves, if you lord over people and deny them education and jobs just because you can and you want to keep control you're asking to have your ass handed to you, no amount of blaming Obama will change those facts, you moved in to steal the resources and that's the bottom line, getting angry because you're getting what's coming to you is a waste, it was fine when they were killing beating and brutalizing blacks but all of a sudden you're angry because the same is visited on you? You deserve to be murdered and property taken, you stole it in the first place unfortunately, other white countries have been subverted by the left, who are only interested in bringing muslim invaders into the country. if things don't change quickly, we will all end up just like south africa or armenia.

I would rather live in another country and support that country for a better life style and safety for my family.

Whites in SA should organize themselves and split from the blacks in SA. Make their own country. Leave the negers on their own. When whites settled in SA there were many parts that were uninhabited, so saying it was all negros land is a joke. Maybe the'll claim the planet is theirs too one day ...

FACT #2: Throughout 6,000 years of recorded history, the Black African Negro has invented nothing. Not a written language, weaved cloth, a calendar, a plow, a road, a bridge, a railway, a ship, a system of measurement, or even the wheel. (Note: This is in reference to the pure-blooded Negro.) He is not known to have ever cultivated a single crop or domesticated a single animal for his own use (although many powerful and docile beasts abounded around him.) His only known means of transporting goods was on the top of his hard burry head. for Blacks are inferior to whites. Every smart man and a scientist will tell you that.

FACT #31: The rate at which Blacks commit murder is thirteen times that of Whites; Rape and assault, ten times. These figures, as given by the F.B.I. reports, vary somewhat from year to year but fairly represent the trend for the past decade.

FACT #32: According to the justice Dept, 1 in every 4 Black males between the ages of 20 and 29 is currently in prison or on probation or parole. (32) (6) (3)

FACT #33: Though only 12 % of the U.S. population, Blacks commit more than half of all rapes and robberies and 60 % of all murders in the U.S. (32) (27) (6)

FACT #34: Approximately 50 % of all Black males will be arrested and charged with a serious felony during their lifetime. (27)

FACT #35: A Black person is 56 TIMES more likely to attack a White person than vice versa. (3) (32)

FACT #36: Black rapists choose White victims over half (54.9 %) of the time, 30× as of ten as Whites choose Blacks. (2) (32) (28)

FACT #37: The annual report from the Department of justice shows that when Whites commit violence they do it to Blacks 2.4 % of the time. Blacks, on the other hand, choose White victims MORE THAN HALF the time. (3)

FACT #38: In New York City, any White is over 300 TIMES MORE LIKELY to be

D.C. also has the country's strictest gun control, highest police costs per capita, highest ration of police and correctional officers per citizen, and highest rate of incarceration. Its permanent population is over 80 % Black. West Virginia, which has the nation's lowest crime rate, suffers from chronic poverty and has the highest unemployment in the U.S. It also has the fewest police per capita. West Virginia is over 96 % White. (33)

THE BLACK FAMILY

FACT #41: 46 % of inner city Black men between the ages of 16 and 62 are unemployed. (27)

FACT #42: More than 66 % of the children of Negroes are born out of wedlock. Per capita, their illegitimacy rate is ten times that of Whites. (32) (27)

FACT #44: More than 35 % of all Black men in U.S. Cities are drug or alcohol abusers. (27)

FACT #18: In addition to the difference in brain weight, the Negro brain grows less after puberty than the white. Though the Negro brain and nervous system mature faster than the white brain, its development is arrested at an earlier age which limits further intellectual advancement. (22) (27)

FACT #19: The thickness of the supragranular layer (the outside layer) of the Negro brain is about 15 percent thinner, and its convolutions are fewer and more simple, on average, than that of the White brain. (9)

FACT #20: The frontal lobes of the Negro brain, responsible for abstract conceptional reasoning, are smaller relative to body weight, less fissured, and less complex than those of the White brain. (9) (27) (23) (22)

Sorry to disagree with you, Thabo.

That we have a problem in South Africa I am in agreement with. The way I see it is that most acts of violence are perpetrated by black individuals. In the USA blacks committed 52% of all homicides between 1980 and 2008, despite composing merely 13% of the population. In South Africa this is far worse, and I do also agree is that blacks experience the lions share of the crime wave committed by their own

White Genocide, fact or fiction?

20 May 2013, 20:00

“Almost 70 000 White People have been murdered by Blacks since 1994!” this is what activist Sunette Bridges Tweeted on Jan 13 2013.

This caused quite a remarkable online spat between Bridges and several other Tweeters, including Afrikaans singer upset when their exaggerated statistics gets debunked.

A letter in the PE Herald confronted the issue of white “extermination” and concluded that no such thing exists. <http://www.peherald.com/news/article> an outrage amongst extremists.

Bridges and others have published various articles in which they stated the number 70 000 (murdered since 1994), but since the twitter spat Bridges mysteriously edited that figure, without making a public apology or ever admitting she was wrong. However, if you search the internet you will find this figure of 70 000 being quoted everywhere. Bridges herself comments on a Rapport article on 30 December 2012, “Waarvan PRAAT jy? Is byna 70 000 blankes vermoor aan die hand van Swart mense ‘n mite?” <http://www.rapport.co.za/Weekliks/Nuus-is-ver-van-reg-20121229>

After many people tried to illustrate the flaws in the 10.6 whites murdered per day theory, Bridges and other “Death counters” suddenly started with more accurate research: In her recent blog posting <http://sunettebridges.co.za/a-year-from-hell-the-truth-about-south-africa/> A year from Hell, Bridges now comes clean with a more accurate figure, and strangely enough, it does correspond with previous research done into “white murders”:

169 murders in 365 days.

If you do a quick calculation, you will discover that this brings the murder rate to 0.46 whites killed every day. This equates 31.8/100 000, one can clearly conclude what others have been saying.

By far the likeliest victims of murder in this country will be the black population. In fact, if you do the calculation, only slightly more than 1% of all murders in South Africa are “black on white murder”.

Take into account that the white population is 8.9% of the total South African population. To conclude:

- Whites are 8.9 times less likely to be murdered than black people in this country.
- There is no way that a white genocide can be proven based on current statistics, and also the recent revelation that the 70 000 murdered since 1994, was a baseless rumour.
- We have a serious problem in South Africa, and I believe that one murder is one murder too many. Our black population suffers much more than whites do.
- If we stand together as South Africans, and stand up against this atrocious rate of murder against all our people, and not make it a “race exclusive” issue, we will be able to probably achieve more in combatting crime.

MANY MANY asian nations for all the asian.

S. America, Central America, N. America, Canada and alaska all for the indians.

Ignorant people say you europeans go back to europe your own country but the fact is europe was inhabited by blacks before whites migrated there from asia which the asians claim is all their land.

The whole planet belongs to all races but the white race.

Why has that been the case for 6000 years whites may ask.

Let me tell you who YOU are and who the real devils are.

Strong's #119: 'adam (pronounced aw-dam'). to show blood (in the face), i.e. flush or turn rosy in the cheeks.

Adam & Eve were your white ancestors.

A white couple does not produce black, arab, asian or indian babies. They only produce white babies.

Gen 3:15 I will put enmity=hatred=racism between you (Satan) and the woman (White Eve), and between your ****offspring**** and hers.

Satan was a black angel in the flesh in the garden and he tempted Adam & Eve into having sex with him. That is where all the races today come from. They are white or black or a mix of the two genes.

God destroyed the earth by the flood to kill all the mongrels because Noah and his family were the last few pure blooded whites left on earth years now since that first movie called, Guess Who's Coming to Dinner in 1967. NO and I mean NO other nations on the planet earth promote their own genocide 24 hours a day using every form of media available. From TV to basketball and football magazines with white women and their black husbands on the front covers to posters in the mall to white children being taught in schools that if they do not mate with blacks they are racist and bigots.

This is all *By Design" and "NO Accident".

It is to bring about the genocide of the white Adamic peoples of the world.

The world is being taught *The Great White Satan* and to hate all whites using every form of media.

We are the ONLY race targeted for genocide.

Anti-Christ is a code word for Anti-White because over 90% of the worlds christian's are white people.

The BEAST empire that rises to power to BEHEAD christian's are flooding by the millions into EVERY christian white nation.

With the anti-christ/anti-white muslims flooding into every christian white nation and all the black & white race mixing and all the promotion of non-whites to kill whitey.

I'd say a ***WAR*** is being waged against the white Adamic Christian population of the world.

Israelites of the bible.

The JEWS run the banks, the government and they run most of the worlds media. It is them who promote white genocide in every christian white nation.

Yes they look white and that's how they get elected but they all have brown eyes. You will not find a blue, green or hazeled eyes JEW.

They are contaminated white adamites. Revelation 3:9 I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews though they are not, but are liars.

These fake jews put the word JEW in the bible in the 1800's.

None of the 1500, 1600 or 1700 bibles had the word JEW in them.

Like Satan they have successfully deceived the world into thinking they are the apple of God's eye and the true Israelite's of the bible.

The problem with blacks is that they love the fruits of modernization, but both hate working for it. Just look at Robert Mugabe of Zimbabwe for example. Though he's forever renouncing- and spewing hatred violent protests allegedly due to high enrollment/class fees but actually because they don't perform. "Coincidentally" these protests ignited just before final year exams. This is fact because people protesting high cost do not burn down the academic infrastructure which would lead to even higher costs. All they do is want, want, want, but deliver absolutely nothing of value!

yeah, The rule of nature is to progress, without progression, you only get regression, regression means to loose all energy and vanish. Progression is the cruelest law in nature. The races that did not progressed, had to go into slavery or permanent extinction. The truth is that the black race cannot cope in today.s modern world. They cannot compete. The whites in south africa had no alternative but to fight back in the days, they won and ruled the country, building a great country for the black people of south africa today. Now the Whites have no place to go... I lived in the Apartheid Era. There was NO violence like this from us on blacks. It is clear that we cannot live in harmony with black

You not only laughed your fao, you also must have lyf brains out long time ago, because you don't seem to have anything left to think with. What id!ots like you do not seem to realize/know/understand is that the whites did not force anything on the blacks. They developed the parts of the country where they settled whereas the blacks merely subsisted where they settled. Inevitably with South Africa being an arid country, when droughts came knocking, the latter found themselves migrating to white settlements where they could find food and shelter. The whites did not understand ritualistic torturing of cattle to appease forefather spirits or raping of goats and sheep as initiations ceremonies for sangomas (witch doctors) or harvest body parts off live infants, that these people brought to their doorsteps and tried to teach them their ways. The blacks though do not do in Rome what the

If ethnic Europeans become a minority in Europe, they will be faced with the accusations about colonialism in order to redistribute wealth. There is a lot of hatred by Blacks towards Whites due to the colonial past of Africa, I see it on many internet forums. While Whites have been brainwashed with multiculturalism and cultural Marxism, Blacks are still being brainwashed with racist revolutionary communist propaganda... so there will be a clash. Because when the Euro Christian imperialists took the lands over, they managed to remove millions of people from their native homes and then revoke their citizenships. Why should anyone cry over karma?

Native Africans are fighting back against their brutal colonizers and modern oppressors, who despite being a tiny fraction of the population still own the majority of wealth and land.

“The reality of pain memory (and birth memory) is confirmed by a mother whose premature baby was shunted for hydrocephalus without painkillers and while paralyzed with curare. Large incisions were cut in his scalp, neck, and abdomen and a hole drilled in his skull. She writes that 10 years after the operation her son will still not allow anyone to touch his head, neck, and abdomen in the areas touched during surgery. The mere sight of the hospital provokes in this child violent trembling, profuse sweating, screaming, struggling, and vomiting.”

Rupture of the Lung

The medical literature details cases of circumci$ed babies whose lungs have burst as a result of intense crying. In one case, at Georgetown University School of Medicine, a 15-day-old baby with severe respiratory distress was circumci$ed. He turned blue, started breathing frantically, and cried incessantly. Finally, doctors discovered that the crying had caused the baby's right lung to burst. A drainage tube was inserted and the baby was hospitalized for 19 days.

distended and doctors discovered that his stomach had ruptured, requiring emergency abdominal surgery and the insertion of a feeding tube. After 25 days in the hospital, the baby was released. This baby had a perfectly normal stomach when he was born, but the trauma, excruciating pain of circumcision, and his prolonged crying caused his stomach to burst and spill its contents into the abdominal cavity.

Serf JULY 20, 2016 AT 00:12

There are many reasons for violence and violent acts some of which include but are not limited to the following:

All races can and do commit violence and violent crime upon others as has been seen throughout history.

Physical factors that can influence violence include genetic disorders, genital mutilation known as circumcision. psychopathy, alcohol, meat, hallucinogenic drugs and certain prescription drugs, mind control (MKULTRA), vaccines, and brain injury. Failed and absent parenting such as resulting from alcohol, drug and substance

(they have none of their own) and they of evil voraciously devour for their survival as parasites devour their hosts.

Societies and cultures that mutilate their people's genitals particularly those of children from an early age in a process called circumcision both male and female have been shown to exhibit much higher levels of crime, antisocial behavior, violence.

Studies have shown that problems of crime, antisocial behavior, violence have also increased due to criminals who as babies and infants who were denied human skin on skin contact and eye contact such as by being held close to their parent's/carers chest and resting the baby's/infant's arms and legs on their parent's/carer's arms when the baby/infant was distressed. Studies have shown the lack of human contact results in greater mental health problems later in life.

‘From the start of the 17th century to the early 19th century, between one half and two thirds of all the White colonists who came to the New World came as slaves, and the white slaves were treated much worse. Whites were the first people to stop slavery in modern times, whereas slavery still continues in Africa. 16th – 18th century, Africans enslaved 1.5 million White Europeans in the Barbary Slave Trade.

When the Trans-Atlantic slave ships docked at African slave markets to buy slaves, they bought slaves who were already slaves. It was Arab Muslims and Black Africans themselves who captured members of rival tribes and took them to the coastal slave markets to sell to the Whites and Jews. White people didn't go into Africa and kidnap free black people.

African Muslims raided up the coastlines

Native Americans and Jews owned Black slaves. In fact, Jews were the biggest slave-owners in America per capita.

“In the pre-Civil War United States, 2% of white gentile households owned slaves. 40% of Jewish households owned slaves. Jews were 2,000% more likely to own slaves than white gentiles.” To this day.

In Mauritania slavery was only made a punishable offense in 2007!

Only 5% of the black slaves transported across the Atlantic actually went to the modern U.S. Most in fact went to Latin America to serve Hispanic slave-owners.

What's the situation like in America now?

Blacks kill more than twice as many whites as whites kill blacks.

Blacks are 7-8 times more likely to be murderers.

40% of cop killers are black.

Police are 18.5 times more likely to be killed by a black than to kill an unarmed black.

Black cops are 3.3 times more likely to fire a gun than other cops.

Black criminals commit 52% of homicides in the U.S., but are only 25% of those killed by police.

Blacks are 32% of welfare recipients.

Impressive numbers for a group totaling just 13% of the U.S. population.

The black tribes hunted and killed one another here before the whites came to the area now known as South Africa. As an example, the Matabele were chased up by the Zulus to present-day Zimbabwe where Mugabe proceeded to commit genocide against them with the whole world watching. As the Dutch and French farmers and tradesmen and traders left the Cape colony (British) to get away from their laws they came upon the Zulu king Dingaan who invited 60 trekkers into his kraal (hut town LOL) but told them to leave their guns outside. The good Zulu king offered the Trekkers who were there

Sunday, December 16 was like being newly born for us—the sky was clear, the weather fine and bright. We hardly saw the twilight of the break of day or the guards, who were still at their posts and could just make out the distant Zulus approaching. All the patrols were called back into the laager by firing alarm signals from the cannons. The enemy came forward at full speed and suddenly they had encircled the area around the laager. As it got lighter, so we could see them approaching over their predecessors who had already been shot back. Their rapid approach (though terrifying to witness due to their great numbers) was an impressive sight. The Zulus came in regiments, each captain with his men behind (as the patrols had seen them coming the day before) until they had surrounded us. I could not count them, but I was told that a captive Zulu gave the number at 36 regiments, each regiment calculated to be “nine hundred to a thousand men” strong.

The battle now began and the cannons unleashed from each gate, such that the battle was fierce and noisy, even the discharging of small arms fire from our marksmen on all sides was like thunder. After more than two hours of fierce battle, the Commander in Chief gave orders that the gates be opened and mounted men sent to fight the enemy in fast attacks, as the enemy near constantly stormed the laager time and again, and he feared the ammunition would soon run out.

follow up attacks on the capital UmGungundlovu set the Zulu King Dingaana to flight with what retainers chose to follow him into exile.

Blacks had nothing and fought each other tooth and nail for territory women and livestock. Not a toilet not a fork nothing.

Now they say the whites stole 'their land' ha ha ha

They are murdering white families, boiling or burning women and babies or burning them with irons and more, the scumbags.

Winnie Mandela started the necklace killing method by putting a tyre around a person's neck with diesel or petrol in and setting it alight. Killing mostly their own dissidents or people wanting to go to work when a boycott was on, mostly old black women. Thousands they care not for any but them self and will stand together and fight it out with each other to get it all. Total corruption.

One cannot understand these beasts. They trap birds and throw them alive into a fire before eating them. Such is the sh*t here.

The ANC has a saying 'pick pick (krap krap) at the sore. The genocide against whites and blacks that are not beneficial to them is an age old African tradition.

They fired the finance minister Nene because he would not allow the corrupt Gupta's to continue their conniving with the ANC president Jacob Zuma in that apart from several other corrupt ventures they and Zuma's son bought a Uranium mine for a pittance and colluded with Putin's mafia government to build several nuclear power stations which South Africa couldn't afford.

Really strange that in the preceding two years to this fact becoming public knowledge that South Africans suffered continues power cuts because of power stations being 'unable' to deliver enough power. This then despite the fact that we deliver cheaper stable power to neighboring countries. I have been warned

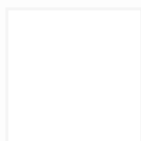

We have rapes of not only white patients but also a doctor was hit by a brick in the face and raped viciously by a black man at Pelonomi Hospital in Bloemfontein. I shudder to think what happens in the psychiatric hospitals as I already know what happens to white women at the police stations, and at large.

I was also told by two unknown black men in Stellenbosch that I should be ready to go to Robin Island the next day, and I was arrested the same weekend on no charge and luckily released the following day.

There is no chance of me getting out of South Africa I fear as I'm 56. However, I shall stand for my rights and the truth! Viva Internet! (I have more stories to tell; one appeared in Wikileaks, the woman with the red dress)

As an outsider, whose relative emigrated out of South Africa after the Boer War, I watch events on the continent with detached interest. It seems to me that the takeover by a majority indigenous Negro population in all African countries, including South Africa, has lead to social decline, financial ruin and high crime and corruption. Why is this so? It may be that the indigenous African culture is so disjointed and tribal-based that they can never come together, as nations, for the good of all.

Your ignorance of South African history proves your (lack of) intellect. This country was populated by both European seafaring nations as well land migrants driven from fertile lands up-north by stronger African nations. Those originally indigenous to this land, have died out 100s of years ago. This notwithstanding, every bit of infrastructure in this country was not only established by the settlers of European ancestry, but also (only just) maintained by them to this very day. Through draconian BEE laws, blacks have walked into positions of employment in “white” organizations, peer-pats on the back to the popular “we have arrived” cheers of applause. Their incompetence in these positions are infamously legendary, the country currently on the verge of utter bankruptcy as a result. When the chickens hadn’t come home to roost, our currency was trading at  $\text{ZAR}0.71 = $1.00$  in spite of the full onslaught of international economic sanctions. Today with the blacks at the helm, it is trading at  $\text{ZAR}15.40 = $1.00$  with NO economic sanctions imposed! Not only must you be blind to not see how your “roosting chickens” have raped the resources of this once first world country, you have to be just as stupid as the president of this country (If you’re as ignorant as I expect you to be, his name is Jacob Zuma for your information).

We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause.”*

Native Americans and Jews owned Black slaves too, but no one seems to assign a collective guilt to modern Native Americans and Jews for their slavery. In fact, Jews were the biggest slave-owners in America per capita.

Whites were the first people to stop slavery in modern times, whereas slavery still continues in Africa to this day. In Mauritania slavery was only made a punishable offense in 2007!

Less than 2% of Whites in America ever owned slaves.

Only 5% of the black slaves transported across the Atlantic actually went to the modern U.S. Most in fact went to Latin America to serve Hispanic slave-owners.

Finally, doctors discovered that the crying had caused the baby's right lung to burst. A drainage tube was inserted and the baby was hospitalized for 19 days.

Rupture of the Stomach

In Richmond, Virginia, a healthy two-day-old baby was prepared for circumcision by denying him food for five hours. Terrified, the baby began crying hysterically as soon as the circumciser strapped him to the restraining board. After half an hour in this position, the baby vomited. Doctors pumped his stomach. The circumciser proceeded to amputate the baby's foreskin without anesthesia using a Gemco clamp. The baby cried vehemently throughout the 90-minute ordeal. After the surgery, the baby refused to feed. His abdomen became distended and doctors discovered that his stomach had ruptured, requiring emergency abdominal surgery and the insertion of a feeding tube. After 25 days in the hospital, the baby was released. This baby had a perfectly normal stomach when he was born, but the trauma, excruciating pain of circumcision, and his prolonged crying caused his stomach to burst and spill its contents into the abdominal cavity.

Where are the rock stars? Where are the boycotts? Oh yeah, only black lives matter.

The Boers need to to multiply, and take their country back. America is in financial collapse, and we won't be able to interfere soon. Africans blaming the whites for their problems is a joke. Whites did not steal this land. The (mostly Jewish) international bankers are behind the world's problems. These people are not white.

What is happening in South Africa is a shame and fits the pattern of worldwide white genocide. There are actually laws preventing humanitarian aid to whites. Even more shameful is that the mainstream media ignores it.

I agree with the comments here that whites should be relocated out of South Africa, and the blacks should simply be allowed to kill each other off.

As for raping and murdering—show me actual evidence where a white person raped a black person in this country. I can show you thousands of actual police reports and dossiers of white woman, children and babes as young as three months old that were raped and murdered by black people even to this day. Hi all:

It is not a racist gesture, it is just a way to protect the White South African future.

Currently no white South African can apply for any job in government or in

So, the inception of CDSA.

This is not just to promote white business, but you must remember that something a few people know about happens almost every day. Affirmative action and broad based black empowerment forces business owners to appoint a black partner into a business that they didn't even work for in a lot of cases. Due to the increased difficulty in finding large government tenders by these once successful white business owners, these businesses are now scaled down or closed down, resulting in lost jobs. And here I am talking white and black jobs. A lot of business owners do join up with black partners just to get the B.E.E. accreditation. I would rather join someone of any race because its beneficial to the business not because there must be 51% black ownership.

We work with young entrepreneurs that cant find work even with a degree or with years' experience, and at the same time a 20 year old historically disadvantaged South African with limited business experience gets a R8 million loan for a business from the (NEF).

So we will be establishing a fund and are looking for investors to fund young CDSA entrepreneurs in South Africa in various industries and businesses. The fund will work on a loan structure and is repaid on an agreed interest rate. The current value of the RAND makes it easier to fund

The article doesn't say 70,000 white farmers have been murdered. It says 5,000 white farmers have been murdered.

Your numbers say 60,000 white farmers at the end of apartheid, and 8,000 white farmers murdered? Do note that 8,000 is ~13% of 60,000.

Which means, according to you: Of the white farmers at the end of apartheid, about half have left the business because they no longer have the easy ride they are used to, and about one-eighth have been brutally murdered.

farmers at the end of apartheid, half are no longer farmers, having found the new South Africa unfavorable having had an easy ride during the apartheid era. This number is blatantly being inflated to incite racial hatred—utterly shameful.

Hi,

We live in the 21st century. I am neither black nor white. Irrespective of who we are, we all want to live in good homes, drive good cars and live a safe happy life with our families. Hence the economy and good quality of life is the most important. There is no black man, white man lands. The land came FREE when the earth was created either by whom we are taught to believe in which I do but have not seen called “GOD” or by SCIENCE.

In the early centuries, people were not educated and the social systems and justice systems were just evolving.

In today's times education has provided us with an understanding to respect the fellow human being should they earn the right to respect.

As we speak today on the 16 February 2016, it is the white man in today's times that has saved the black man from extinction, with the medical treatments for AIDS and EBOLA, not the Asian/Indians.

The past is gone, now it's about which country will have the best economy so their citizens can live the best lives.

Linda Mankqoyi:

Your one-sided deluded diatribe regarding Europeans illustrates the underlying genocidal attitude of your race against an ethnic minority less than 10% of the total demographic. This country is governed by YOUR democratically elected political ANC party (for over 20 years now). Your people do not even vote for a multi-racial party because it is all about “black” and “white” to your racist Xhosa, Zulu, and Tswana/Sotho so-called “tribes.” Your president is a vile polygamist who has absolutely no respect for women and is clearly not qualified to run a post office let alone a country. Still you'd rather vote for him before choosing non-black people to rule the country! In spite of your so chosen “black majority rule” being exactly to your liking, you are still filled with racist hatred toward people of European descent and still this country is riddled with “service delivery” protests and riots against the very same democratically

When your incompetent countrymen land their new overpaid BEE jobs and they pull out in their brand new luxury European vehicles, they coin the term that they have now “ARRIVED”! Why do you feel so proud of owning technology created by people you clearly hate and despise, as is shown by the genocidal hatred toward their descendants? Or does this impart a feeling of power over the conquered victim? This hatred is generally not found in African countries north of South Africa! It is so ironic that in the country which offers more (European-descendant created) opportunity and wealth for black people than ANY other place on earth, the recipients thereof are filled with an insatiable racial hatred toward Europeans! When northern African migrants come to make use of these opportunities, even they are mercilessly murdered and driven out of the country under the so-called guise of “Xenophobia.”

Little I have mentioned here isn't fact that can most likely be researched and verified! I have lived here for very long and I can provide more than 10 names of white people I personally know who have been murdered/maimed by black people! I know of no country in a non-war state where the average citizen can lay a similar claim! To me this proves without reasonable doubt that the article above is true, and conservatively so!

You say it's a democracy but it's OK to discriminate against me for the actions of others before me. I had no knowledge of it, for I was not born. The problem in South Africa is not blacks. Nor is it whites. It's the fact that people hold a grudge. Nelson Mandela did many things according to the media, good and bad, but he had some wise words. You are not born hating another based on their skin color. It's something that you learn from others. I have seen blacks get discriminated on in modern South Africa. Hate speech in a professional workplace and everyone would laugh. I didn't. I felt hurt that this was accepted by them and felt very sorry for the poor man. I started saying to my coworker that it wasn't OK. He then said he felt the same but didn't want to say something under the pressure. I left that job because of this. No one deserves to be hated for their skin. We are born the same, we die the same. Shame on you for feeling anything other than this. More work gets done if a lot of people help. So instead of pointing fingers at who did what, rather do your part in helping each other to improve our country. Many of the comments here are full of hatred and bitterness. It's tragic. Some of the comments here are probably from people who have probably not even put foot on South African/African soil and no doubt have little clue about what is actually happening on the streets. There is growing discontent with the ruling ANC party, and many black youngsters are disillusioned by just how corrupt many of the ANC elite really are. There are service delivery protests all the time, all over the country, because many municipalities waste money and simply don't do their jobs efficiently. Case in point: waste cleaners in the city I live in are on strike because many of them have been employed as temporary employees for over 5 years and don't get benefits. Their salaries are R 2000 a month—work that out into U.S. dollars and it is a pittance, all the while those in charge get astronomical salaries and the Mayor has two mercs and bodyguards. One would never see our Mayor cycling around like Boris Johnson. The president recently sacked the finance minister because the finance minister was trying to curb gov't spending, trying to reign in the belligerent management of South African Airways and was reluctant to give the go-ahead for a nuclear energy deal that would cost the country over a trillion Rand. The South African currency is losing value and food prices are set to increase dramatically after Christmas because of the bad drought that the country is experiencing. Next year is going to be a difficult year for South blames Jan Van Riebeeck for all of the country's problems.

That all said, I am a white South African citizen. I was born in Zimbabwe, grew up there and have lived my adult years in South Africa. Yes, I know there are less poor whites than poor blacks—but don't kid yourselves if you think all whites live in luxurious homes with maids and gardeners and have top paying jobs. Whites also beg on the streets, and many whites are struggling to keep their heads above water in these tough economic times. For many years (18) I lived in a multiracial neighborhood where whites were the minority, and I never felt unsafe because of my race. Only in recent years did I feel unsafe because crime was worse and prostitutes had basically taken over the street I lived in and as a result traffic and noise increased until well after midnight, not to mention the litter and mess the prostitutes and the clients left behind. For my own sanity I moved into a better neighborhood; it is a decent area, where there are people of all races, not just whites in a "leafy suburb" so to speak.

Personally, I don't believe there is such a thing as "white genocide." South Africa is a country with a high crime rate and all races are targeted when it comes to crime, and violent crime at that. Many commercial farmers are white, and farmers are generally easier targets because of their isolation. For those who say whites shouldn't even be in to end apartheid rule and the result was mostly YES. However, there are a minority of people of all races that cling onto their bitterness of the past.

South Africa has enough problems right now without a minority of people (of all races) trying to pit white against black and black against white. Most of us (of all races) want to see a successful country, and to live alongside each other peacefully, but the often disastrous ANC policies and actions are doing South Africa no good.

mainly due to the death of colonialism. Of course, if it was not for colonialism in the first place, Africa would still be in the original state it was 300 years ago. Grass shelters to live in and no sowing or harvesting, no animal husbandry, and starving hordes probably eating each other in order to survive.

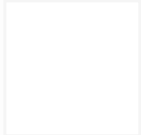

As I mentioned down below, I am a white South African born and bred, fourth generation. Some of my ancestors and relations have during the past two and half centuries, been slaughtered. In order to NOT becoming a statistic myself, I am armed day and night. That is not the way a peace-loving person should wish to live. I hear what TRY TO HELP says but again I would ask anyone reading this, ONE, where would one knock in order to determine if there is some country, perhaps like Australia, who would consider taking in an elderly white Christian couple who are still active but beyond “productive” economic age, yet can still be active if given the opportunity. TWO, to TRY TO HELP; I would ask, what action would YOU suggest regarding helping people like me? Suggestions.

May God help us.

Debbie, if you read this, contact the French embassy. The consulate or the ambassador may come to your place to deliver your family a visa. Once you are in Europe, Federal European laws (Schengen laws) allow you to travel to the UK (you can get a train for that, no need for plane) UK authorities will let you go through the border (especially considering you are refugees from S.A.)

DebbieBedford:

They refuse you access to embassy? or to – (cold war method) rush very early in the morning (before daylight) to the embassy you want to get a visa from (people working for the state tend to be lazy, especially in Africa *personal experience from my grandparent who lived in Africa for 50 years* ) you wont meet anybody. But you need to warn the embassy a few days before so they open their door before daytime and before the arrival of policemen or militia preventing you from getting inside.

– interposed method: if you can access one embassy (example: French) you may ask them for some assistance to get a visa for UK or Australia (all occidental ambassadors know each other in foreign countries, one may help you in reaching your destination)

– last method (if really your life is in extreme danger) consider leaving the country by yourself. DO NOT GO ON TRAIL (best way to get into troubles with thieves) prefer moving on boat to a destination such as Madagascar (not that far if you consider traveling on a good boat, but keep the coast in sight, so if you need some resupplying you can access the land, however be very careful, depending on the fishermen you will meet either on land or on the sea, it can be VERY dangerous, I am talking about rape/death, so make sure you have some men with you) once in Madagascar it may be easier to get a visa.

genocided in S.A., according to the tribe's plan. Pull your heads out of the sand; it's getting late in the day.

As always, many a pinheaded individual like Paul Fromm, NobodysaysBOO, FarmerDave, toboldlygo and indigoxxx1 do not realize or perhaps do not want to open their eyes as to who their true enemy is! Your enemy is not the black man that you see. Your enemy is the Jewish aristocrats that have systematically dehumanized all shades of mankind. Knowing your enemy is the first step in the battle to free yourselves from the mental slavery of hate and the physical slavery that has seen society worldwide be destroyed by the same selfish narrow interests of the “Jewish Utopia” builders. Hussein Obama is the least of your problems. Consider that whatever gains Obama has made for the Zionists have been built up over the years by the other serfs posing as Presidents of the USA. Besides, the romanticized views of the USA that you hold are nothing but an illusion. This nation was built up by the Zionists themselves to be the “dumb beast” that would be the engine that would enforce the worldwide utopia of serf like without direction they will explode in mob violence. The gang rape is in their genetic system, it insures a right matchup of sperm. Drug companies are frantically searching for an effective tranquilizer for this half-beast. Heroin seems to be constructive, but illegal.

Watching Sodom Obama spend a fortune to attend Mandela's funeral while refusing to attend American medal of honor recipient inaugural ball, the first president ever shows how a treasonous government at the helm of government is purposefully destroying our nation, from his? beginning, allowing 3 billion ++ barrels of oil to ruin our gulf ignoring Naval authority to detonate adjacent to drill hole blow out thereby ending the flow of oil a few days after the blowout was a horrible thing to do, but he has continued to act against us for the last 6 1/2 years, destroying our nuclear defense shield, taking down the flag, putting a faggot flag in its place, illuminating the White House with homosexual colors, destroying Shuttle @, constellation, giving Elon Musk billions for de nada in an open and shut case of political donor kickback,

I was born here in South Africa. I am one of the whites without work and have kids who have no future here. My parents wanted to visit my sister last year in Wales, but due to corruption they could not get their visas. We are getting blocked at the embassy so that we can't leave South Africa. If I could, I would have left with my kids. I have 4 daughters and my fear is that they will get gang raped. They gang rape women and most off the times the husband have to look on helplessly. My son told me of a murder in another province where a man got home from work and his wife and sons were not home or so he thought. He found is wife and oldest son hanged in is room and the 6-year-old he found in the garage. His head was still in the vice and his head burst open. The robbers kicked him, strangled him and because he didn't die they took him to the garage and put his head in the vice and tortured him by clamping his head with the vice until his head exploded. The father is now in the mental institution. He had CCTV cameras in his house and watch the footage and saw what happened to his family. We live with burglar bars on our windows, safety gates on our doors and six feet walls to stay alive, but still regards to the ongoing travesty, which is the murders and rapes of white people, that continues to occur in South Africa?

Shortly we will see the worth of YHWH's sword over the wicked nations.

I got first hand experience to trust whom are not worthy to be trust! And it is proven through the ages, the hand that feed the dog is the one who got bitten and SA feeds while their own kind is hungry and naked, without work.

May YHWH have mercy on those who straggle to make a living on farms for YOU to eat, "hopenlik" to night there is no murder on SA's farms.

May YHWH's people show mercy to our White "plakkerkamp" people and maybe today there is still a job for a white person.

Somehow we have to stand as a nation, for Zim's hunger, pestilence and famine, is like a wave who came and overflow SA to drown her.

Look up North a cloud of dust and death

Maybe someone should send this to Bono of U2 (as well as the other artists against apartheid) and ask him if he understands the concept of unintended consequences. Not saying apartheid was right, but anyone with half a brain could see this train wreck coming.

Unfortunately, the natives are killing the hand that feeds them and have no clue until one day they will wake up and have no one to cannibalize but themselves.

What worries me is this seems similar to what the media is doing in the U.S., UK, Sweden, etc. Not on the same scale, yet, or savagery, but not reporting black on white crimes.

Paleface JULY 28, 2015 AT 13:12

Having spent a number of years in South Africa (in both apartheid and post-many consider themselves 'African' and would struggle to settle anywhere else, even if the opportunity were available. Or so they tell themselves, especially if they have no option but to stay where they are and make the best of it.

The tragedy to me is that there are a good many lovely black people over there, genuine, kind and humorous people, who are not violent criminals and who don't support the ANC government. Mostly they don't vote at election time because they fear the intimidation at the polls by the ANC and the ANC Youth League. They suffer from the violence and corruption as much as anyone. There has been little material benefit in their lives since 1994.

Please, who can help with funding to relocate those whites before it's too late?

Armagh Incest JULY 28, 2015

I remember when I was growing up in the 1960s and 70s there was not a day gone by that the newspapers didn't have a story or two (or four) about how horrible S.A. was with its system of apartheid, and the horror of it all, don't you know.

Now these many years later, Communists are in power and the savages are raping and murdering white people all over the country—and, just to illustrate how utterly biased the global Marxist press actually is, the tragedy that is present-day South Africa is ignored in the media.

The whites in South Africa will have to carve out from South Africa their own territory, and then move everyone to that territory. A race war is taking place in South Africa even if it is going in slow motion. Whites cannot continue in the current status quo, for to do so means certain genocide. Making their own territory will have to include the ability to manufacture their own weapons, food and coal. All whites will have to move to such territory at the same time. Those left behind will be slaughtered. Remember the
